Ike Warns Congress Against Defense Cuts

DISTRICT TOLL BRIDGE IS FREED

Makes TV Appearance For Budget

WASHINGTON (UP)—President Eisenhower warned Congress again today not to trifle with the defense of the country by making large budget cuts.

His warning, voiced at his weekly news comference, followed up his nationwide radio-television appeal to the American people Tuesday night to sacrifice dollars rather than their sons and cities as the "price for peace" in a world threatened by atomic-armed Communism.

Eisenhower told reporters that he acknowledges honest differences of opinion between the executive and legislative branches of government But he said that if Congress trifles with the defense budget, this country will be in serious trouble.

But Congress seemed in no mood to retreat in its economy drive.

A House Appropriations subcommittee was reported to have tentatively approved a cut of some $2,500,000,000 in Eisenhower's defense budget for next year. Subcommittee members insisted the cut would not imperil the defense program.

Other news conference highlights:

—The President said he believes one of the reasons Russia apparently is considering disarmament more seriously than in the past is that it is beginning to feel the pinch of supporting a heavy armaments budget.

—He said unification of the armed services has not taken place in quite the form he expected He added that this was one of the basic problems involved in writing a minimum federal budget.

—He asserted that use of force by Israel to send a ship through the Suez Canal would be reprehensible

Question Starts Talk

Eisenhower's remarks about the budget, particularly on defense spending, started when a reporter told him that reports from Capitol Hill indicated that a House Appropriations subcommittee had decided to cut the Defense Department budget by $2,500,000,000.

The President shook his head and said that if the subcommittee could make such a cut honestly he as a former Army officer of staff wanted to know how it could be done.

Clasping his hands behind his back and rocking energetically on the balls of his feet, Eisenhower said that if we—the executive and the legislative branches of government—are going to trifle with defense on the basis of the reported committee cut, then the country is going to be in for real trouble.

He said if such a cut is possible, then he would have to be re-educated

The President, in a broadcast and televised defense of his 72 billion dollar budget, told the nation it risks "terrible consequences" if his defense program is "materially" cut

Warning of danger from a Soviet "despotism . . . fully capable of the supreme folly" of trying to destroy the free world he said this country must keep up its armed

LOAN-LY DEALS — Roy Fruehauf, head of the Fruehauf trailer firm, tells Senate racket probers that Teamsters president Dave Beck helped him get a one-and-one-half million dollar loan from the union in 1953 to win a proxy fight. Fruehauf and trucking magnate B. M. Seymour told how they later made a personal loan of $200 thousand to Beck.

Beck Is Accused Of Theft

WASHINGTON (UP)—Senate investigators heard new tesumony today which, they said, proves that Teamster Union President Dave Beck stole more than $322,000 from his union instead of "borrowing" it.

A. M. Burke, head of the mortgage loan department of Occidental Life Insurance Co. of Los Angeles, said a financial statement Beck made in 1951 listed no such loan from his union.

Burke said Beck listed assets of $1,052,715. He said the only liability listed was a $234,000 loan from the Security First National Bank of Seattle.

Beck made the financial accounting in applying for a $273,000 loan from Burke's company, which wrote Teamster union insurance.

Counsel Robert F. Kennedy of the Senate Labor Rackets Committee said that the 1951 financial statement was made "during the period when Beck was taking $300,000 from the union, which he now claims was a loan."

Money Stolen

The 31-year-old committee counsel said that since Beck himself listed no loan from his union, "it would therefore appear that the money was stolen rather than borrowed."

The new testimony about Beck's personal finances came amid these other developments:

—AFL-CIO President George Meany met with a committee of Teamster Union vice presidents to discuss the scandal-scarred union's "problems in general." One matter expected to come up was a recommendation by Teamster Union public relations advisers that Beck step down as union president—at least temporarily.

—Federal authorities succeeded in Ellensburg, Wash., in serving a valid subpena on a missing witness wanted by the Senate committee, Norman Gessert, cousin of Beck's wife

U.S. Marshal W. Budd Parsons of Seattle assured newsmen the new subpena served on Gessert is valid.

The first subpena was no good It ordered Gessert, whom the committee has been looking for along with three other witnesses for weeks, to appear before the committee May 8.

The other three missing witnesses including Dave Beck Jr. were last reported to have slipped across the Canadian border to Vancouver.

National Steel to Meet Tomorrow; To Name Chairman

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Directors of National Steel Corp. meet Thursday to name a new board chairman with Secretary of the Treasury George M Humphrey reported in line for the job

Humphrey indicated last Friday that he wanted to step out of the Eisenhower administration when congress adjourns, or perhaps sooner, Dow-Jones reported Tuesday he "is known to be eager to assume his new responsibilities at National Steel."

Ernest T. Weir, present board chairman and organizer of National Steel announced at the annual stockholders meeting April 24 that he was stepping out as chairman and would recommend "an outstanding man" for the post at the organizational meeting of the directors, which will be held at Weirton, W. Va.

Humphrey, prior to his appointment to his treasury post, was chairman of the executive committee of National Steel.

Driver Hurt in Rt. 88 Crash

One driver was hurt in a three-car crash on Craven Hill, Rt 88, yesterday afternoon.

Injured was Albert Hasek 43, of 813 Bell Ave., Belle Vernon. He was treated for lacerations of the forehead and body bruises and released.

State Police said a car driven by Tony Fieco, 50, of Fisher Heights, was traveling north on the road when it went out of control. The machine went into a spin and crashed into a car operated by Horace Coberly, the latter car to overturn The Fieco car then struck a car driven by Walter Ambree, 59, of Donora.

Two-car Collision Is Reported Here

A two-car collision occurred yesterday afternoon at 4:45 at the intersection of Sixth St. and Chestnut Ave., Monessen police reported today.

A car driven by Mrs. Harry Tueche Jr., of 1320 Rostraver St., was traveling up Sixth St. when it was struck by a vehicle driven by Eliseo Coletti, of Park Manor, damaging fenders of both cars Coletti, police said, assumed responsibility.

Parking Plaza Revenue Reported at 50 Per Cent

Revenue from the two downtown parking plazas is coming in at the rate of about 50 per cent, it was announced last night at a meeting of the Monessen Parking Authority.

Chairman Harold B Cramer released a report from the City Treasurer's office showing that total receipts for the first six months amounted to $4,161.27.

This is almost half of what is necessary to put the two plazas on a self-supporting basis, Cramer said.

This amount is a little misleading, Cramer pointed out, since additional income will be received from 42 stalls to be rented on a monthly basis in the two middle levels of the downtown plaza.

The Authority has authorized the rental on a monthly basis, at $10 per month, for the stalls.

A complete report on the number of stalls rented under this arrangement will be made at the next meeting of the Authority. Stickers for the cars have been ordered and are expected in next week.

George Ciepiy, executive manager of the Chamber of Commerce, is handling this rental.

Cramer pointed out he is very satisfied with the operation of the plazas since the Authority had been warned by Don McNeil, Pittsburgh traffic consultant, that it will take a year to 18 months for the plazas to be put on a self-supporting basis.

FIRST "FREE" MOTORIST — Mrs. Charlotte Malys, of Fayette City, became the first "free" motorist to pass over the Charleroi-Monessen bridge following the lifting of the toll charges this morning at 9:30 Looking on were Joseph Fiedler, (left) bridge manager and North Charleroi squire, and James March, of West Newton, who had been a toll collector since 1922.

Wives of Four Lost Men Keep Erie Vigil

ERIE, Pa. (UP) — The wives of four Washington County men lost on a Lake Erie fishing trip last Saturday kept an unhappy vigil here today while Coast Guardsmen continued a search for the bodies of their husbands.

The women, who assembled here Tuesday to claim personal effects found in the cabin of a swamped cabin cruiser, remained at a motel near Girard, Pa. That is only a few miles from Coast Guard headquarters which sent boats out again this morning to patrol lake waters between Erie and Ashtabula, Ohio.

A Coast Guardsman helping in the search said there was a possibility bodies of the victims could drift toward Erie and the New York state line. There also was the possibility the bodies had become entangled in fishing nets in the area.

According to the Coast Guard, the search will continue for a week if necessary.

Chief Boatswain George Todd in charge of the search, said the searchers' chief hope lay in the fact two of the four life preservers from the 16-foot cabin cruiser were missing and may have been used by the men.

The lake was rough late Tuesday, hampering the search

The missing men are John W. Trump 26, John Sklarski, 35, and Leslie Pierce, 36, all of Canonsburg, Washington County, and Stanley Vulcet, 36, Lawrence, Washington County. Todd said he was informed the men sailed out of Lake City, Pa., Saturday evening, when the lake was extremely rough.

Maxwell Wants 'Drag Strips': Introduces Bill

State Rep. H. J. Maxwell, (D-Westmoreland) yesterday introduced a bill in the Assembly which would permit county commissioners to establish authorities for the purpose of constructing and operating 'drag strips' for racing automobiles.

Dr. Maxwell of Monessen, said his bill (H-1604) was referred to the Committee on Counties.

A sports car enthusiast himself, the legislator said he thinks the provision of "drag strips" would reduce much of the racing on highways by youthful drivers.

He said the strips are paved straightaways a half - mile in length and the racing is supervised to provide maximum safety.

Crescent Mine Closed Today: 87 Are Idled

Republic Steel Corporation closed its Crescent No. 3 mine in Fallowfield Twp. today, idling 87 miners.

The company said the mine, leased several years ago from Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal Company, has been worked out.

It was the third major mine suspension in the central Monongahela Valley within six months. Vesta No. 4 at California closed in March and the Allison mine near Brownsville closed down last week.

Most of the men who worked at Crescent mine lived in Fallowfield Twp. and the Roscoe area.

Files Suit for Damages to Car

Bud Stinebaugh, of Belle Vernon, R. D., has filed a suit in the Westmoreland County courts, against Alice Behanna, of Scottdale, R. D. 1.

The suit was filed as a result of a collision between an auto owned by Stinebaugh and operated by Aretta Stinebaugh and the car of Oswell Behanna, driven by Alice Behanna in Monessen

Damaging Wind Storms Lash Parts of Nation

By UNITED PRESS

Damaging wind storms dotted with tornadoes and heavy rains lashed widespread sections of the nation Tuesday night and today from Colorado to New York

Eight to 10 twisters dipped from dark clouds near Grand Rapids Mich., Tuesday night, but disappeared without hitting the city. Other tornadoes were sighted near Rockford, Portland, Lowell, Alto and Middleville, Mich., but they also bypassed the communities.

An earlier tornado smashed a farm building near Bloomington Prairie, Minn., and two twisters were reported near Anamosa, Iowa, and Antioch, Ill.

Three persons were injured when tornadic winds collapsed a bank roof at Wooster, Ohio, Tuesday. A lightning bolt wrecked the chimney of the Berlin, Wis., high school, showering bricks on 100 students in a study hall. No one was injured.

A United Press count since Monday showed at least 14 persons killed as a result of storms, six of them in flood-soaked Texas.

The latest victim was James L. Stinger, 32, who was killed Tuesday night when a lightning bolt exploded a cache of dynamite 500 feet underground near Fresno, Ca. f. Authorities said Stinger was loading a dynamite charge into drill holes in a tunnel at the Black Rock Dam project when the lightning hit and followed a cable underground.

Drifting Barge Causes Explosion

EAST CHICAGO, Ind. (UP)—A drifting fuel barge cut two gas lines in the U.S. ship channel Tuesday night, touching off an explosion and fire that threatened two large refineries.

No one was injured in the blaze which burned itself out after the Northern Indiana Public Service Co. shut off gas to lines on both sides of the blazing river.

Boroughs Group To Meet Tonight

The Washington County Boroughs Association will meet tonight beginning at 7:30 in the old auditorium building near Monongahela Memorial Hospital.

Plans will be discussed for the state convention to be held June 24-27 at Philadelphia.

Officials from Area Towns in Ribbon Cuttings

The Charleroi-Monessen toll bridge was freed today.

The last toll was collected at 9:30 this morning during ceremonies attended by Monessen, Charleroi and North Charleroi officials.

Similar ceremonies were held at nine other state-owned toll bridges also freed of charges today, four years ahead of schedule.

Mayor Hugo J Parente, of Monessen; Burgess James W. McGuire, of Charleroi, and Burgess John McKay, of North Charleroi, headed the parade of officials from the three communities who took part in the "freeing" ceremonies which marked the end of 50 years of collecting tolls on the Charleroi-Monessen span.

Since the opening of the bridge in 1907, motorists and pedestrians have paid more than $2,000,000 in tolls.

Cost Was $300,000

The contract price for the bridge was originally $225,000 and $50,000 was paid for real estate on both sides of the structure. An additional $25,000 was added to the original cost when high waters swept away all of the new construction in May of 1907.

The bridge was owned by the Mercantile Bridge Company and purchased by the state in 1949 for $550,000.

All 10 bridges were purchased in 1949 or 1950 at a cost of $8,578,588 through a bond issue authorized by the 1949 legislature. The legislature directed that none of the spans could be freed until sufficient money was accumulated to pay off all the bonds.

The bridges were originally slated for lifting of tolls in October, 1961. But Gov George M Leader said "prudent management of the funds and efficient operation" permitted the early freeing.

At the morning's ceremonies the Monessen delegation took part in a ribbon-cutting ceremony on the Monessen side of the stream and delegations from Charleroi and North Charleroi performed a similar ceremony on their side of the bridge.

Motorcade Follows

Later all three of the delegations met in the center of the bridge for a short speaking program. Following was a motorcade through the three communities

Besides Parente, McGuire and McKay, others taking part in the program included:

Charles W Hagenstaad, president of the Monessen Chamber of Commerce, Norman Henderson, chairman of the Monessen Chamber's Merchants Division; Michael J. Skiroan, Jr., chairman of the Charleroi program and entertainment committee; Councilmen John Kotch, Jr. and John Molnar and City Treasurer John Spielman, Harvey Scudder, general manager of the Monessen Page plant, Edwin A Johnson, works manager of the Monessen plant of Pittsburgh

Bus Riders to Pay Less Crossing Bridge

The lifting of the tolls will benefit riders of buses using the bridge. Formerly it cost 27½ cents for a trip from Monessen to Charleroi via the bridge. The fare now will cost only 25 cents, the Noble J. Dick Co. announced. The 2½ cents was for one-way bridge toll.

The fare rate for the Greyhound buses using the bridge will remain the same.

Monessen Leads County in March Of Dimes Drive

Westmoreland County residents contributed $93,702.87 during the 1957 March of Dimes drive, it was announced today by Abraham Beter, campaign director.

Although short of its $100,000 goal, the Westmoreland chapter ranked high in comparison with other Western Pennsylvania counties. Proceeds dropped 15 per cent in the county from last year while the drop was as high as 40 per cent in other counties.

Monessen again topped the County with $9,335.58.

Amounts from other communities included:

Greensburg $7,390.16; Irwin, $7,088.42; New Kensington, $6,718.34; Latrobe, $5,837.19; Hempfield Twp., $5,371.02; Jeannette, $5,285.85 and Arnold $5,068.14.

On a per capita basis the report shows:

Penn Borough, 93 cents; Delmont, 87 cents; Smithton, 78 cents; Youngwood, 64 cents; Manor, 64 cents; Madison, 55 cents; Monessen 52 cents; Hyde Park, 50 cents; Latrobe and Arnold 49 cents. The per capita average for the entire county is 37 cents

Deducting expenses for the 52 dances and County office, net proceeds amounted to $85,120.60, one half of which was retained by Westmoreland County chapter.

Ed Alberts was chairman of the Monessen campaign.

Peoples Gas Asks Increase

PITTSBURGH (UP) — Peoples Natural Gas Co. today asked the Public Utility Commission for a $1,242,000 rate increase to compensate for wholesale costs of gas going into effect July 15.

The Federal Power Commission recently granted rate boosts to Peoples's suppliers serving Peoples in its petition to the PUC. Peoples said it seeks higher retail rates with the "single purpose" of covering its increased costs

A Peoples spokesman said the average general service customer using 50,000 cubic feet of gas annually would pay an additional 95 cents a year. The average heating customer using 215,000 cubic feet annually would pay $5.07 a year more, according to company estimates.

UMW Active Behind Loughran for Judge

The United Mine Workers union is conducting an organized campaign among district miners in behalf of Joseph M. Loughran, Westmoreland County judgeship candidate.

Loughran has been attorney for the UMW's District 5 for the past 18 years

Directing the activities in Loughran's behalf are Leon Yablonski, of California, Pa., international representative, and Peter Halvonik, of Perryopolis, member of the executive board of District 5.

They said yesterday that the executive board and all the UMW locals of the area have unanimously endorsed Loughran.

Although two judgeship candidates are to be nominated by both parties, the UMW leaders said they are accepting for votes for Loughran only. He is running on both tickets.

Politicians are sure to watch the contest in Perryvale, Van Meter and other mining towns of Rostraver Township. The township is the home ground of Chief County Detective Arthur B. Bacon. School Subsidy Bill in Trouble

Big City Opposition Is Strong

HARRISBURG (UP)—The Republican-sponsored 31 million dollar increase in school subsidies today appeared to be in deep trouble in the Legislature because of big city opposition.

Philadelphia and Pittsburgh officials contended that the schedule of mandated increases for teachers set up by the last Legislature far exceed the increase the districts would receive in state subsidies.

Philadelphia school district officials said that in the next five years such mandated increases will cost the city $14,988,000 while additional subsidies will total only $2,018,000.

On the House floor Tuesday Allegheny County Republican Rep. Maurice H. Goldstein said the deficit for Pittsburgh over the same five-year period will total 12 million dollars and he was "unalterably opposed" to the 31 million dollar increase in subsidies.

The result was that the school subsidy bill was returned to committee where Republican leaders said they "hoped" to come to some agreement in the bill.

"No—it's not dead," House Republican Whip Allen M. Gibson Worthington said when asked what the chances were for the measure re-emerging in acceptable form.

Bill's Fate Uncertain

"This is no cloak-and-dagger work," he said. "We sent it back to committee to see if we can work something out. Frankly, I don't think anybody knows what's going to happen to it."

Meanwhile, Senate Republican leaders disagreed with their House colleagues on how soon the General Assembly can wind up its sessions.

House Majority Leader Albert W. Johnson (R-McKean) said the leaders of the two chambers had agreed on June 8 as a final adjournment date. But the Senate proposed and adopted a resolution fixing June 15 for quitting.

"We felt that it was impossible to meet the June 8 date," Senate Majority Leader Rowland B. Mahany (R-Crawford) said, pointing out that neither chamber will meet the first two days of next week because of the May 21 primary. Another move is afoot in the Senate for that chamber to work only the first two days of the following week when the Memorial Day holiday will be observed.

The House must concur in the same die resolution before it can be adopted finally.

Both chambers were in session for almost six hours Tuesday.

The Senate approved and sent to the House legislation aimed at giving participating local communities a minimum of 30 million dollars annually in refunds from the state Motor License Fund to be used for local road improvement.

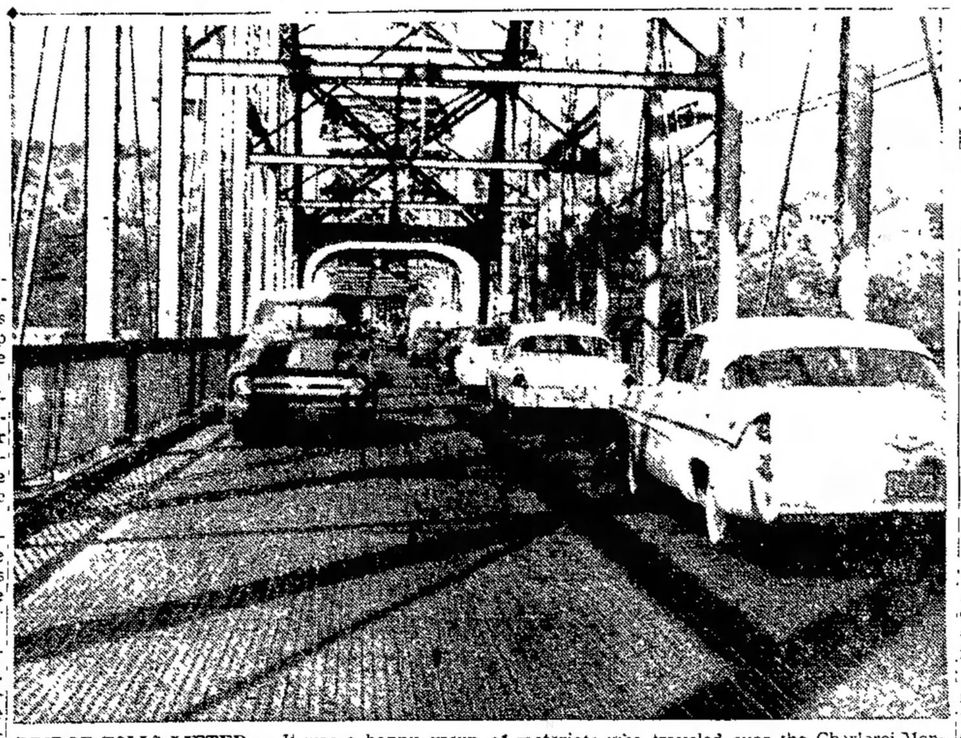
The administration has insisted that because of the failure of the Legislature to reenact an emergency one-cent increase in the state gasoline tax, rebates to local communities will be cut to 26 million dollars annually.

Before the bill was adopted in the Senate by a vote of 37-8, Democrats charged that it appropriates money which will not be available in the Motor License Fund because of the cut in gasoline taxes which takes effect June 1.

Senate Minority Leader John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland) said that "for every cent a gallon cut is restored and Gov. Leader says he will, it will result in a 21 million dollar deficit in the Motor License Fund."

The House voted 196-6 to send to the Senate legislation requiring car dealers to close their places of business on Sundays.

Rep. Lewis W. Tompkins (R-Clearfield) suggested that the law-makers close up shop as well rule the long and close automobile service stations on Sunday.



BRIDGE TOLLS LIFTED — It was a happy group of motorists who traveled over the Charleroi-Monessen bridge after 9:30 this morning. The state lifted charges on the 50-year-old toll bridge. Some $2,000,000 in tolls had been paid from 1907 until today.

New Political Crisis Reported Today in Syria

By UNITED PRESS

New reports seeped through Syrian censorship today of a political crisis in that country.

One report published in Beirut, Lebanon, said Syrian President Shukri El Kuwatli was undergoing a "political illness" which might be the forerunner to his resignation.

The Beirut newspaper Le Soir also reported Kuwatli's "illness" and said he may resign because of anger at his left-wing cabinet for maintaining a state of siege in the country.

Reports reaching Jerusalem earlier this week also told of a political upheaval in Syria and some Israeli sources predicted a coup might unseat the present left-wing government there.

There was no official indication whether the Syrian political situation may have caused King Hussein of Jordan to call off his flight to Baghdad Tuesday for talks with his cousin King Feisal of Iraq and King Saud of Saudi Arabia.

Speculation in Amman was that Hussein did not want to do anything at this time which would strain further his relations with Syria and Egypt.

Baghdad dispatches said Saud and Feisal may be planning a secret meeting with Hussein when they lunch Thursday at the big Iraqi air base of Habbaniyah near the Jordan border.

Relations meanwhile worsened between Egypt and Lebanon and between Israel and Egypt with Egypt reiterating its determination to prevent any Israeli shipping from using the Suez Canal.

Lebanese reports said Egypt had recalled its ambassador from Beirut and told him to remain in Cairo as long as the Lebanese ambassador continues to boycott Egypt. Relations between the two country's have been cool because of Lebanon's acceptance of the Eisenhower Doctrine.

There was no further word on Israel's announced decision to test Egypt's blockade of the Suez Canal, and the plans apparently were proceeding in secrecy. But Cairo dispatches made it clear Egypt had not wavered in its plan to prevent Israeli passage.

Kinzua Supporters Speak at Hearings

WASHINGTON (UP)—Supporters of the Kinzua dam and reservoir project plead their case today at a House hearing.

Officials on the federal, state and local levels were scheduled to argue in favor of the flood control project before the Public Works Subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee.

They included Sen. Joseph S. Clark, Democrat; Rep. Leon Gavin, Republican, who has been the project's chief backer; Maurice K. Goddard, Pennsylvania secretary of forests and waters, and a Pittsburgh delegation headed by Mayor David L. Lawrence.

The subcommittee has allotted each 15 minutes to present arguments for approval of a one million dollar federal budget appropriation for initial construction work on the Kinzua dam.

Accompanying Lawrence were Sherman P. Voorhees, executive director of the Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce; Adolph W. Schmidt, president of the Allegheny Conference on Community Development, and Patrick J. Cusick, executive director of the Pittsburgh Regional Planning Association.

Voorhees carried to the subcommittee hearing letters of support from the chambers of commerce of Aliquippa, Homestead New Kensington, Allegheny Valley at Tarentum, and North Side and East Liberty in Pittsburgh.

The Allegheny County Board of Commissioners announced at Pittsburgh Tuesday its unqualified support of the project.

The Pittsburgh Chamber of Commerce, in reaffirming its long standing support of the project, said Tuesday it has been shown that flood damage in the past 21 years, which could have been prevented by a dam at Kinzua, has exceeded the estimated 100 million dollar cost of the project.

strength to convince Moscow's rulers "they cannot escape... destruction" if they start a general war.

Even as the President spoke, a House Appropriations Subcommittee was reported to have tentatively approved a cut of some $2,500,000,000 in Eisenhower's defense budget for next year. Subcommittee members insisted the cuts would not imperil the President's defense program.

Proper Dividing Line

Eisenhower, however, declared not only that his defense budget represents the "proper dividing line" between "national danger" and overspending, but that unless the world arms race is slowed, defense costs "will tend to go up year by year."

Declaring that economies in domestic programs would be relatively small at best, Eisenhower said the "only one hope" of making "really great savings" is to obtain an "effective disarmament agreement" that would ease world tensions.

To "hasten that day" he called on the public to support his embattled foreign aid, diplomatic and propaganda programs as vital to "wage peace aggressively."

"... The price of peace is high" and demands "great ... sacrifices," the Chief Executive declared.

"But they are sacrifices of dollars for a peaceful world, not the sacrifice of our sons, our families, our homes and our cities to our own shortsightedness."

Eisenhower, speaking from his White House desk in firm, earnest tones, also strongly defended his domestic budget, including his hard-pressed school construction program, as meeting "the essential national interest — and no more."

Wire Tapping Bill Studied

HARRISBURG (UP)—Legislation to control wire tapping went to a Senate-House conference committee today after the Senate refused to concur in amendments which would have permitted law enforcement officers to intercept communications under certain conditions.

House amendments rejected by the Senate Tuesday would permit police chiefs, district attorneys and the state attorney general to order wire taps after obtaining a warrant for the purpose from a court of quarter sessions.

The version insisted upon by the Senate, however, would permit wire tapping only by telephone and telegraph company personnel in the performance of their duties.

Plans Set for New Nuclear Test Program

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UP)—American scientists put the finishing touches today on preparations for the first atomic blast in the lone 1957 summer "keep the peace" series even as international controversy over such nuclear tests seethed.

Weather permitting, the three-month testing program will begin shortly before dawn Thursday when a nuclear devide with a violence equal to 10,000 tons of TNT will be exploded atop a 500-foot steel tower in a far corner of Yucca Flat 65 miles northwest of here.

The burst will be witnessed from 11 miles away by a half a hundred newsmen and photographers face representing foreign agencies, 30 representatives of 13 NATO nations, and about 30 military observers. There will be no troop maneuvers although two full-scale exercises will be staged later in the series.

The newsmen and other observers, including many from 47 foreign nations, will be permitted to watch nine of the approximately 20 "shots" scheduled through the summer. The other tests will be closed to all but the scientists and the military.

The new tests, dubbed "Operation Plumbbob" by the Atomic Energy Commission, will be the longest staged by the United States since it began A-bomb testing in 1951. Five series of tests have been held since then, the longest being in 1955 when 14 nuclear detonations were set off. Thursday's "shot" will be the 46th fired in Nevada.

Emphasis upon this year's tests will center primarily upon development of new and more efficient tactical weapons such as air-to-air and air-to-ground missiles, smaller atomic artillery, anti-submarine weapons and those to destroy enemy A-bombs and H-bombs before they strike their targets.

The AEC disclosed Tuesday that one of this year's Nevada tests will consist of the first U.S. firing of an air-to-air missile with an atomic warhead probably the Air Force's new Douglas-made Dinga.

Fake Charity Promoters Are Fleecing Givers of $150 Millions a Year

WASHINGTON (UP) — Fake charity promoters are fleecing gullible givers of about 150 million dollars a year.

That's enough money to bail the Red Cross out of its financial crisis . . . to put the heart, cancer and polio drives over the top . . . to provide hundreds of summer camps for underprivileged children.

These and other causes which want more public support are among the victims of charity racketeers who pocket about three per cent of America's total contributions to philanthropy, according to the National Better Business Bureau.

The bureau, which has local offices in more than 100 major cities, is taking the lead in an effort to teach Americans how to make sure that their contributions go to legitimate charities instead of to heartless parasites who prey on man's desire to help the unfortunate.

Edward G. Mergardt, vice president of the bureau, said one of the most vicious things about the charity rackets is the fact that their existence tends to make Americans cynical about all charities, the worthy ones as well as the fakes.

Give Intelligently

"No one should stop giving to charity just because some purported 'charities' are unworthy," he said. "If you give intelligently, none of your money will be wasted."

The basic rule for intelligent giving, Mergardt said, is to "know the cause you're supporting." If an appeal sounds worthy, but the sponsoring organization is unfamiliar to you, investigate before reaching for your checkbook.

One easy way to investigate is to write or telephone the nearest Better Business Bureau. The bureau looks into every new charitable solicitation that is called to its attention, and can usually give you prompt advice on which appeals are suspicious.

Beware of solicitors who call by telephone, give you a tear-jerking spiel, and offer to send a collection agent to your home or office right away to pick up your contribution. This is a favorite technique of racketeers. If you get such a telephone call, insist that the "charity" send you full details of the appeal by mail.

Promoters Shun Writing

Many promoters, who are conducting purely fraudulent operations, will balk at putting any of their sales talk in writing, or sending it through the mails. They know that this exposes them to prosecution for mail fraud or for obtaining money under false pretenses.

But you can't assume that an appeal is worthy just because it comes to you through the mails. Some of the biggest racketeers operate on a national basis with mail solicitations. Their "letterhead" charities often bear names deceptively similar to those of high-reputable organizations. They sometimes have an impressive-looking list of "sponsors."

Some of these outfits manage to avoid fraud prosecution by actually turning over part of their take to the charity they purport to represent. If the appeal is in the name of a boy's camp, for example, the promoter may keep himself clear of the law by sending a dozen boys to a run-down camp—while pocketing thousands of dollars himself as "promotional costs" or "administrative expense."

Advice on Solicitation

If you think that a mail solicitation may be deserving (and some very worthy organizations do seek funds nationally by mail), Mergardt's advice is:

"Insist that the organization make available to you a detailed report of its activities, including its budget and an audited financial statement.

"Determine how much of your contribution will actually be spent for the purposes it was solicited for, and what percentage is expended for administration and fund-raising costs, including commissions to promoters or solicitors."

Mergardt said one of the fake charity gimmicks currently in vogue is mailing out unordered merchandise. The merchandise may be religious articles, or some trinket. Usually the recipient is told that his remittance will help to support some needy cause.

Many Americans fall for this racket because they feel that they either have to pay for the merchandise, or go to the trouble of returning it. But you don't have to do either, said Mergardt.

"The post office has ruled that you have no obligation to remit for unordered merchandise or to spend personal funds or effort for its return to the sender," he said.

Buddy Challenged

Mrs. Jessie S. McCormick, Westmoreland County recorder of deeds and former vice-chairman of the County Democratic Committee, said Monday night she "owes it to good Democrats everywhere in this county to challenge Arthur B. 'Buddy' Turner's dictatorship."

Mrs. McCormick, who has held her office for 20 years, spoke at the Kingston Veterans' and Sportsman's Club.

"Turner and his unsavory cohorts are trying to hoodwink the voters into going down the line for an organization slate," she said. "This so-called slate does not have the endorsement of the Democratic County Committee. Turner openly boasts that he picks the judges in this county. It is high time that good Democrats assert themselves and nominate candidates of their own free choice. . ."

Mrs. McCormick is supporting Joseph M. Loughran for the judgeship nomination. The organization is backing Judge Edward G. Bauer and District Attorney L. Alexander Sculco.

Rally Tomorrow

A giant political rally will be held by Mayor Hugo J. Parente and his City Hall slate tomorrow night at New Italian Hall. His opponent, John R. Stieska, has not yet announced his meeting schedule for the remainder of the week.

District 13 Steelworkers To Convene Next Week

150 Delegates To Take Part In Uniontown

Union matters concerning some 46,000 United Steelworkers in District 13 will be discussed in Uniontown next week by 150 elected delegates of the rank and file meeting in a two-day annual conference at the Summit Hotel.

District Director Eugene Maurice said the May 22-23 conference will include addresses by I. W. Abel, international secretary-treasurer and Howard R. Hague, international vice president of the union.

The district which the conference covers includes the Johnstown - Monessen - Chalreroi - Altoona area where huge basic steel plants and many fabricating mills are located.

Both Abel and Hague are scheduled to speak on the opening day of the conference. Abel is expected to discuss the handling of union funds and the safeguards which are imposed on disbursements such as the semi-annual audit by an independent firm. This audit has been undertaken voluntarily by the union since its inception and copies are mailed to every congressman and U. S. senator as well as to public libraries and many other public officials.

'White Collar' Drive

Hague is expected to discuss progress of the union's current drive to organize "white collar workers." Several new locals of office workers have been enrolled under the USWA banner since the drive was ordered by President David J. McDonald with Hague in charge.

Important in the conference business will be the election of four wage policy committeemen to represent the district's 56 locals in future contract planning.

Election of representatives to the Wage Policy Committee is another of the democratic processes under which the USWA names all officers, convention and conference delegates on both local and national level by direct referendum. The 140-man committee composed of representatives from all over the nation determines policy on wage contract negotiations which the union's bargainers then execute.

Others scheduled to speak at the conference include Joseph McDonald, legislative representative in Washington; Harry Boyer, president of the state CIO and legislative representative in Harrisburg; Frank Burke, chairman of the union's safety committee; Otis Brubaker, research director, and John Tomayko, director of the insurance and pension department.

Aliquippa Pair Given OK to Sue the State

HARRISBURG (UP) — James and Susie Little, Aliquippa, would be authorized under a bill now before the General Assembly to bring suit against the Commonwealth for damages allegedly suffered by them as the result of the state's acquisition of their property for highway purposes.

State Sen. Harry E. Seyler (D-York), who co-sponsored the measure with Sen. Robert D. Fleming (R-Allegheny), said the Little's were deprived of an opportunity to bring the suit in Beaver County Common Pleas Court through a "lawyer's error."

The state Constitution provides that "suits may be brought against the Commonwealth in such manner, in such courts and in such cases as the Legislature may direct by law," which, in effect, means that the Commonwealth cannot be sued except by its own consent.

Student Gives Self Up; Called Robbery 'Brain'

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Michael T. Quinlan, 25, a Duquesne University student, surrendered to police Tuesday to face charges he masterminded a $45,000 payroll robbery.

Quinlan walked into detective headquarters with his attorney, surrendered and then refused to answer any questions.

Police said Quinlan was the leader of a four-man gang that took an Eichleay Corporation payroll here last Sept. 6. His three alleged accomplices were arrested last week. Police said the gang squandered the loot.

Police Lt. Paul Ryan said Quinlan, a sophomore at Duquesne's School of Business Administration, was the "brains of the outfit, the man who figured out the plan and gave the orders."

Those arrested last week were Vernon Cronin, 22, Carmen Celmo, 25, and Robert Stadelman, 26, all of Pittsburgh. Police said Celmo helped plan the holdup, but backed out at the last minute and received $500 to "shut up."

Choose Judges for Experience—Pershing

Judges should be chosen for their knowledge and experience, not because of their political connections and hand-shaking capacity, according to Atty. Avra N. Pershing, Jr., a candidate for common pleas judge in Westmoreland County.

In a radio talk prepared for delivery today, Pershing said:

"Popularity or greeting people in a campaign does not indicate the candidate's ability as a judge.

"While political offices held does provide a means of observing how the candidate has already served the public, and provides some training perhaps, yet it indicates some possibility of political obligations."

Pershing, who acted as special prosecutor in the 1953 Monessen vote fraud cases, said judicial candidates are sometimes supported because of favors they grant or because they are subject to political influence.

"This might be called 'pulling strings' or 'getting to the court through the back door,'" he said.

"The fair and impartial administration of justice necessitates that the candidate be free and uncontrolled. Can he be entirely free if he is the candidate of some individual, faction or group? Certainly he cannot if he is obligated or committed to any of these.

Speaking of the vote fraud cases, Pershing said he was chosen as special prosecutor "at the insistence of the Attorney General of Pennsylvania."

"I was advised that my selection and appointment was made by reason of being regarded as a fair and impartial attorney with extensive trial experience," he said. "I was accepted by both Democrats and Republicans as non-partisan. After the prosecutions were completed and six defendants convicted and sentenced, I was advised by members of both Democratic and Republican parties that the work had been thoroughly non-partisan."

Pershing said that, if elected, he will adhere strictly to the Canons of Judicial Ethics of the American Bar Association, which require judges to refrain from actively promoting the interests of any political party.

Senate Approves Bill to Cut Theater Tax

HARRISBURG (UP)—The state Senate Tuesday approved legislation which would wipe out local taxes on indoor movie theater admissions in all Pennsylvania communities except Philadelphia.

Sen. John H. Dent (D-Westmoreland) said the measure was "an attempt to help a very sick industry." Dent made it clear that he did not expect the elimination of the tax to result in lower admission prices at theaters, but that theaters would be able to keep more of the money collected at their box offices.

"Many theaters which went into the red last year, would have made at least a meager profit if they had had the amount they collected in taxes," Dent said. "If the bill doesn't pass, a great many more theaters will go out of business."

The measure applies to only the so-called "hard top" theaters. Local taxes on drive-ins would not be affected.

Dairy Industry Studies Contract To Avert Strike

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Representatives of the Greater Pittsburgh Dairy Industry Association meet today to study a contract deadlock that has posed threat of a strike by 3,000 drivers and plant workers in 11 Western Pennsylvania counties.

A two-year wage contract offered by the 85-member association was rejected Monday night by the workers, members of Local 205, Milk & Ice Cream Salesmen-Drivers and Dairy Plant Employes, an affiliate of the Teamsters Union.

Harry A. Tevis, president of the local, notified the association Tuesday the local members voted 1912-779 to authorize a strike for higher pay. It was indicated the union leaders would await a move by the associauon before taking any action.

A walkout could be called at any time, since the union's contract expired May 1. A strike would affect milk producers in parts of Western Pennsylvania, Ohio, West Virginia and Maryland.

Recreation Program Outlined to Kiwanis

A program on recreation featured last night's dinner meeting of the Monessen Kiwanis Club at Slovak Home.

Two members of the Monessen Recreation department were the speakers, Stephen Pfeister, chairman of the board and Frederic Feldman, special events director.

Pfeister outlined the five phases of the recreation program, which are sports, arts and crafts, dramatics, music and special events. He reported that 53,326 children took part in the summer events and Winter events during the year of 1956 and the over all-cost averaged 14 cents per person.

Pfeister also stated that the Monessen Recreation Department is affiliated with the National Recreation Association and utilizes 12 outdoor areas and three indoor areas for local activities.

Feldman stressed the importance of the program and described in detail the special events he arranges.

President Charles Penwick presided at the session, which was opened by Capt. John R. Connors, who gave the invocation. Harold Baker was song leader.

Henry Marmie was in charge of the program and introduced the speakers. Dan Myshin was a guest.

W. R. H. Patterson, lt. governor, outlined plans for the July Fun Fest.

A board of directors meeting was held following the regular session and attending were Penwick, Stephen Spontak, Frank Costa, Robert Pettigrew, Rudy Benedetti, Bill Read, Clarence Lhota, Peter Hutchko, William Crawford, James Oelschlager and Ed Stern.

Library Sets New Record

Borrowers took 56,444 books from the Monessen Public Library during the year ended April 30, it was reported at the annual meeting of the Civic Library Association yesterday.

This established a new record for circulation in a 12-month period. Last year's figure was 55,975.

The librarian's report also showed that 991 new books were added to the collection during the year, bringing it to a total of 15,808 volumes.

A financial statement reported receipts of $14,483.29 and disbursements of $12,951.01 for the same 12-month period. The association ended tis fiscal year with a cash balance of $7,940.32.

Elect Directors

Largest items of revenue were a City appropriation of $4,000 and an allotment of $2,957.15 from the Community Fund. The School District contributed $1,500.

Salaries aggregating $6,648.24 constituted the biggest item of expense. The Library spent nearly $2,000 for books.

The association membership re-elected the following to serve one-year terms as directors: Charles C. Throop, Margaret Russell, Dr. R. E. Palmer, Jr., Harry R. Pore, Jr., Harry P. Roberts, Dr. Joseph Pallone, J. H. Sylvester, Harvey W. Seymour, Mrs. John Hanlon, Edwin A. Dawson, and Sam D. Stern.

In addition to the elected directors, the City Council and the School Board each designate two of their members to serve on the Library board.

About 15 members of the association attended the meeting, and 46 others were represented by proxy.

GOP Is Seeking Support to Cut Leader's Budget

HARRISBURG (UP)—Republican leaders today asked public support for their planned 100 million dollar appropriation cuts in Gov. George M. Leader's $1,600,000,000 budget for the next two years.

Republican State Chairman George I. Bloom said that "big spenders" in the Leader administration are "now working night and day trying to work up support in the Legislature for bigger and bigger appropriations for their agencies."

"The people back home should protest this unwarranted use of tax funds by office holders to try to force the Legislature to break the line on no new taxes," he said. "Now is the time for the people who want to avoid additional taxes to speak up loud and clear so that all members of the Legislature will know that the people want them to hold the line and will not tolerate additional taxation during the next two years."

Rep. Norman Wood (R-Lancaster), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, said the appropriation bills expected to move into the House Thursday would provide for the fundamental needs of the Commonwealth, "with every possible non-essential eliminated."

Defeat Bill to Close Taprooms

HARRISBURG (UP)—A proposal which would have forced taverns and taprooms to close their doors when owners were convicted of second offenses against the State Liquor Code failed to pass the House Tuesday.

The House defeated the measure 79-108. Currently owners of liquor establishments may make a cash settlement if their licenses are suspended.

Trinity Church Program Change

The Rev. David Dillon, Jr., of Trinity Episcopal Church, announced today that Suffragan Bishop William S. Thomas will administer the sacrament of Confirmation at the Church tomorrow evening at 7:45.

Bishop Austin Pardue, of the Pittsburgh Diocese, who was scheduled to attend is suffering from a throat infection.

A coffee hour will follow the service.

Princess Charlotte Mother of Twins

LUXEMBOURG (UP)—Princess Josephine Charlotte of Luxembourg gave birth to twins during the night.

A five pound prince and a five-pound two-ounce princess were born to the 29-year-old princess, wife of Luxembourg's Prince Jean, at Betzdorf Castle. The births occurred just before and just after midnight.

The twins, who have not yet been named, and mother were reported doing fine.

Legion Post to Give Awards; Makes Plans For Memorial Day

Thomas McKee Post 28, American Legion, made plans for presentation of awards at a meeting last night in the Post Home.

Commander Peter Stieska announced the essay winners, Helen Polkabla, Irwin Borof and David Dow, will receive awards at the annual class night program, May 24. The first winner will receive a $50 bond and a gold medal, the second a $25 bond and a silver medal and the third a bronze medal.

Stieska also announced that the scholarship award medals will be given to an eighth grade boy in St. Leonard and Holy Name Schools and a ninth grade boy at the Junior High School. These announcements will be made during a special assembly program.

Boris Pishko reported that the Post will send one boy to the Legion-sponsored Keystone Camp at Lock Haven for two weeks in June.

Adjutant Jack Snyder reported present membership at 725 less than 90 short of the goal. A final effort will be made to go "over the top" for the fourth consecutive year and the committee in charge includes Dr. G. L. Trilli, Jack Beck, J. J. Godla, H. A. McDermott and Angelo Giannini.

George Chesmar, Memorial Day committee chairman, reported that markers and flags have been received to decorate veterans' graves on May 28 at 6 p. m. Wreaths will be placed on every grave. The final joint Memorial Day committee meeting will be held Friday at 9 p. m., at the Legion Home.

Post members took part in military rites for the late John Guydan and John Checchi last week.

Jack Snyder reported on ill members, Alex Snyder, Perry Cozza, Steve Menzler, Joe Panepinto at Oakland Veteran's Hospital and Wilbert Ferguson at Leech Farm.

Donations were voted to the Midget Football League and Miss Mon Valley contest sponsored by the Junior Women's Club.

There was the first reading of a resolution by Jack Beck, chairman of the building committee, involving the study of real estate to determine a site for possible future Legion Home and the disposition of the prtsent Post 28 Home. This resolution must be read on May 28, June 11 and June 28 before it can be acted upon.

Karen Duda Is Rotary Speaker; Tells of Trip

Karen Duda, a Monessen High School student who won a recent national essay contest, spoke at yesterday's noon luncheon meeting of the Monessen Rotary Club.

She related the events of her trip to Chicago, Ill., where she accepted her award on a television program.

Miss Duda's essay was selected from among 75,000 entries in the National Thrift Essay Contest. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Michael Duda, former superintendent of Monessen schools and current president at California State Teachers College.

"I was thrilled by it all," related Miss Duda, as she told of her television and radio interviews.

Henry Furio, Monessen High School principal, introduced the essay winner.

Out-of-town guests at the meeting included L. S. Champless, A. R. McLain, and George E. Blankenbuhler, of Monongahela, Harry Robert Gribben and J. C. Watt, of Monessen; R. B. Hagar and Michael A. Melinchak, of Charleroi; S. George Clarke, of Belle Vernon; and Joe Campayno, of Elizabeth.

Tow Boat Razed By Fire Near Beaver on Ohio

BEAVER, Pa. (UP)—The 75-foot Diesel tow boat, Gateway, was wrecked by fire on the Ohio River Tuesday night.

The six-man crew abandoned the $100,000 Gateway in a small boat after the tow boat caught fire while moving downstream near the Beaver municipal pumping plant. The fire was believed to have started in the engine room.

The twin - engine, twin-screw boat, owned by the J. E. Crivella towing firm, of Pittsburgh, floated downstream for several blocks, moving closer to the Beaver bank. Beaver firemen finally were able to get a line on it and pulled it to the bank near Dravo Ave. The bank is 75 feet high at the spot.

Firemen fought the blaze for four hours and pumped so much water into the Gateway that she sank to the river bed in about three feet of water.

All freight train movement on the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks along the bank was halted for an hour and a half.

It was reported the borough of Beaver might file a salvage claim because the vessel was abandoned by its crew.

A 'Free' Bridge

THE ELIMINATION of tolls on the Charleroi-Monessen bridge today removes a barrier to communications among the people and communities of the Monongahela Valley. In these times of deflated currency, it is possible that a 10-cent toll is not a very serious barrier, but it is a barrier nonetheless, and we are pleased that it is gone.

For half a century, this bridge has served to connect Monessen and Charleroi. Until 1949, when the state acquired it and nine other toll bridges, the span was privately owned and operated.

Public policy about private ownership of bridges and highways has changed considerably in this period. It would be unthinkable today to suggest that a bridge across the Monongahela be constructed and operated as a private business. And it has been a long time since we have had a privately operated toll road.

It is now also going out of fashion to finance public projects by means of tolls. Some authorities feel that the Pennsylvania Turnpike will be the last toll road to be built in this state for the foreseeable future.

The boundaries separating private enterprise from the public domain are constantly shifting, which is inevitable in a system one of whose chief virtues is its resilience in adapting to changing conditions. But it seems to us most sensible that highways and bridges should be constructed and maintained out of the general tax funds. To charge all of their costs to users ignores their contribution to the general welfare. The Charleroi-Monessen bridge, as an example, is indispensable to the life of this Valley, and that is no less true for those who use it seldom than for those who use it daily. It is well that it is now "free".

A Better Trend

IT IS POSSIBLE, though the turbulence of the Middle East, to see developing a trend which is not at all adverse to the purposes of the United States and the rest of the free world.

The ambitious and dangerous Colonel Nasser of Egypt is being effectively checkmated on his plans for an Egyptian-led, Soviet-oriented Arab bloc. For this development we have largely to thank the diplomacy which has slowly drawn King Saud of Saudi Arabia to the Western point of view. And this has succeeded in spite of the stupidity of such Americans as Mayor Wagner of New York City, who insulted King Saud at the very beginning of the effort which is having such great bearing on the future of events in the Middle East.

The British are slowly coming to realize that they cannot have everything exactly as they want it with respect to the Suez Canal. For better or for worse—and generally we believe it is for better—the European powers are learning to live with conditions which they cannot change, the important new condition being the developing nationalism of the have-not countries.

The crisis in Jordan has passed without an eruption and young King Hussein has demonstrated that an anti-Soviet position is not necessarily fatal.

There are some of the components of the favorable trend which has set in. They are present, in our opinion, the basic soundness of the American policy and the expertness of its execution.

All these kinds of course, have not dispersed. The danger remains great. But there is nothing in recent events which needs to discourage us.

Big Business Battles Over New Missiles

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — If you read the full text of the Col. John Nickerson secret memo on guided missiles you can easily understand why his court martial has been postponed and why he may never be brought to trial.

Mr. Pearson

The Defense Department has the same kind of a bear by the tail that Herbert Hoover had when he ordered the court martial of Gen. Smedly Butler of the Marine Corps for criticising Mussolini. The Butler court martial would have developed into a trial of Mussolini and was finally dropped.

Likewise, the court martial of Colonel Nickerson is certain to develope into a trial of Secretary of Defense Charlie Wilson and his former firm, General Motors, together with Deputy Secretary of Defense Donald Quarles and his former firm, Bell Telephone.

What Nickerson does, in effect, is accuse them of favoring their own companies by putting guided missile development in the hands of the Air Force, plus General Motors, Bell Telephone, and Douglas Aircraft, at the same time boycotting the Army which does business with General Motors' rival, Chrysler.

Colonel Nickerson also argued that jumping guided missile development under the Air Force in Southern California put too many defense plants in that key area as a target to Russian bombers. The Army's work near Huntsville, Ala., where he is a top executive, he claimed, was less accessible to enemy bombers.

Big Business vs. Government

The Nickerson memo, which came into my hands but was seized by the Defense Department when we did them the courtesy of asking for security guidance, contains these significant passages regarding the battle of big business to control development of the intermediate range missile — the Army's Jupiter and the Air Force's Thor:

"A. C. Sparkplug Division of General Motors has the inertial guidance responsibility for Thor. The development of the Jupiter guidance system is done by ABMA (Army Ballistic Missile Agency) at Huntsville. Production of guidance components is by the Ford Instrument division of Sperry-Rand."

"The Army radio-guidance system developed by JPL (Jet Propulsion Laboratory of Army) is also superior to that being developed by the Bell Telephone Laboratories for Thor."

There follows some technical information which I have censored for fear it might aid a potential enemy.

Discontinuance of the Army missile," continues the secret memo, "will result in the concentration of the following programs in the Bell-Douglas combination—Nike I, Nike B, Nike II, IRBM (Intermediate range ballistic missile of 1500 miles) and ICBM (Intercontinental ballistic missile of 5000 miles range). This is too much missile concentration in one combination. Should one add the Sage and Cesar programs of Bell and the Navy and Air Force aircraft contracts at Douglas — the over-concentration is obviously serious. "Furthermore discontinuance of the Army IRBM would result in an even greater concentration of development in Southern California. This concentration is already the source of considerable worry from a defense standpoint. The Southeastern United States on the other hand is [illegible] location of a missile program.

"It should be noted that the aircraft industry [illegible] the Douglas Aircraft Company [illegible] oppose the development of [illegible] sue by a government agency. High officials of the Douglas company have stated that Douglas is paying particular attention to the possibilities of having [illegible] operation at Huntsville, Ala.

"It is expected that Mr. Wilson [illegible] Secretary of the Army's [illegible] Bell Telephone Co. [illegible] complete missile [illegible] nation, the Douglas and Talos are jeopardized by Mr. Wilson's memorandum."

The Next Secretary of Defense

By ROSCOE DRUMMOND

How would you like to pick the next Secretary of Defense?

The Washington correspondents have been doing it for the past several weeks and there is no reason why we should not have all the fun.

Mr. Drummond

One thing is clear. The bridge which Charles E. Wilson said he wouldn't cross until he came to it is getting nearer all the time.

Mr. Wilson will be the first or second — Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey might beat him — to quit President Eisenhower's second-term cabinet and a spate of candidates to succeed him is already hitting the headlines.

For some time now I have kept score on these speculations and I find that the names of 16 prominent persons seriously advanced to succeed to — not necessarily at — the post which directs the spending of more federal money than any other in Washington.

Candidates Listed

You probably have your own candidate but if you haven't, here is the list of candidates reported by the newspapers as "probable" choices when Mr. Wilson steps down this summer:

Wilber M. Brucker, effective Secretary of the Army, former Governor of Michigan.

Charles S. Thomas, Secretary of [illegible] oops he's just resigned as Secretary of the Navy and is out of the running. Bad guess.

Same for Reuben S. Robertson, Jr., who has quit as Deputy Secretary of Defense to return to his law in Cincinnati.

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther who was supreme commander at NATO and is now president of the Red Cross.

Fred A. Seaton, Secretary of the Interior formerly presidential assistant and formerly Assistant Secretary of Defense.

John J. McCloy, board chairman of the Chase Manhattan Bank, who has a long record of public service as Assistant Secretary of War, High Commissioner to Germany and our first post-war Ambassador to Germany.

Donald A. Quarles, recently Secretary for Air who became Deputy Secretary of Defense this past week.

Roger Kyes, who was Secretary Wilson's first deputy through 1953 and 1954 and is now a vice-president of General Motors.

Others Mentioned

Robert B. Anderson, Deputy Secretary of Defense after Mr. Kyes. He resigned in 1955 to return to private business and has also been mentioned as a possible successor to Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey.

Henry Cabot Lodge, former senator from Massachusetts and now U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations.

Former Governor of New York, Thomas E. Dewey, twice Republican presidential nominee, wouldn't accept.

Gordon Gray, once Secretary of the Army, former Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Affairs and now successor to Arthur Flemming as head of the Office of Defense Mobilization, an Eisenhower Democrat.

Robert A. Lovett, Mr. Wilson's immediate predecessor under President Truman, a Republican; that is, Lovett not Truman; now a New York investment banker.

James P. Mitchell, former Assistant Secretary of the Army and now Secretary of Labor and one of Mr. Eisenhower's favorite cabinet colleagues.

Neil H. McElroy, head of Proctor and Gamble, who served as chairman of the White House conference on education.

James P. Killian, able president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology and the favored candidate of the scientists.

Take Your Choice

There they are. You can take your choice or add others, including yourself.

My first guess is that Deputy Secretary Quarles will succeed Mr. Wilson because he has won the respect and confidence of the President, who likes to work with him and, I think, prefers unnecessary change.

My second guess is Mr. McCloy, who would be a fresh force from the outside to the Pentagon.

The Lighter Side—

A Great Lawyer Who Never Sought Fame

By DOC QUIGG

NEW YORK (UP) — There was little national note of the death recently in Manchester, N.H., of Louis E. Wyman at 78.

Fame is a peculiar thing Wyman never sought it; indeed, he seemed to shun it. Yet there is little doubt in my mind, or in the minds of many who were privileged to watch him at work, that he could have become a nationally famous figure as a criminal trial attorney if he had so chosen.

He chose to remain in his community and devote his talents as a lawyer to his own state. With those boundaries he was well known.

Until his 72nd year, he never had taken a criminal case. The one he took then was his only one. It was enough to prove him for what he was. It was the internationally publicized "mercy killing" case of Dr. Hermann N. Sander, of Machester. At the trial's end, it took the jury less than an hour to bring in an acquittal verdict.

The horde of newsmen and feature writers who invaded Manchester for that trial never had heard of Wyman. Most of them were accustomed to covering trials in which the attorneys were celebrated figures whose courtroom personalities made headlines.

They found the head of the defense staff to be a dignified, even courtly, figure who bowed and called ladies "madam" when he addressed them. His conduct of the case was gentle but firm and sure.

Wyman had practiced law in New Hampshire since 1902. When he finally decided — in 1950—to take a criminal case, he didn't fool around. He brought all the partners in his firm—as I remember there were at least four, and maybe five—into court every day with him as assistant trial attorneys.

He was a man with a deep and penetrating voice and he used it eloquently. When he made his final plea to the jury, his eyes, under his fine shock of white hair, were moist, and I never presumed it to be other than genuine emotion for his client.

Unforgettable Technique

One of his master strokes—one I as a reporter always will remember—was in parading, for most of one day, patients of the defendant doctor as character witnesses for him. It was telling testimony of the affection felt for the doctor by those to whom he had ministered and whom he had helped with a myriad of kindnesses outside his role as a practioner of medicine.

In the course of being a reporter, I have seen many famed trial attorneys but none seemed greater—few as great—as Louis Wyman. That is only a layman's opinion, of course, and here's another: There must be many men in many professions in many communities, big and small, who can match the brilliance of the "big names" but who serve out their lives without public notice.

Behind The News—

New Mideast Lineup Bad News for Nasser

By CHARLES M. McCANN

The current conference of Arab kings in Iraq promises to mark an important new turn in Middle Eastern affairs.

King Feisal of Iraq is playing host to King Saud of Saudi Arabia. These two monarchs are to be joined by King Hussein of Jordan, who with their help has just defeated a pro-Russian, anti-Western plot against his throne.

Mr. McCann

Dispatches from Baghdad, Feisal's capital, indicate that the result is pretty certain to be a new line-up in the relations of the principal Arab countries.

Meaning Of Line-Up

This line-up would include Lebanon. It would bring together four of the nine countries in the Arab League. It would mean a diplomatic victory for the United States and its allies, and a corresponding defeat for President Gamal Abdel Nasser of Egypt and for Soviet Russia.

Iraq and Lebanon are pro-Western. Iraq is the only Arab member of the so-called Baghdad Pact, formed to oppose Communist aggression—and penetration—in the Middle East. Its members are Iraq, Turkey, Iran, Pakistan and Great Britain. The United States has all but joined it outright.

Saudi Arabia and Jordan have been listed as "neutralists." But King Saud has been swinging around to cooperation with the Western Allies since his visit to Washington in January. King Hussein has had some strong second thoughts about his neutralism since pro-Russian political leaders in Jordan tried, with the help of Egypt and Syria, to overthrow him.

Leadership Hopes Vanish

The way things look now, Nasser's hope of making himself the leader of the Arab world, and to unite the Arab countries in a neutralist policy which really would be anti-Western, has finally vanished.

This hope which Nasser long entertained began to get dimmer when in order to get weapons which the United States denied him he turned to Soviet Russia.

Communism is a threat to every king, for one thing. For another, Saudi Arabia and Iraq receive immense revenues from their oil resources, which are exploited by Western countries.

Also Nasser worried King Saud and King Feisal by his open propaganda campaign against Hussein, which the pro-Russian, anti-Western leaders of Syria actively supported. Saud and Feisal suspected that they, too, might become targets.

Cooperation In Crisis

When young King Hussein challenged his political enemies in Jordan, who seemed in full control of the country, to a showdown both—Saud and Feisal pledged him their full support, with military aid if necessary.

The conference of kings in Iraq is a natural sequel to Hussein's victory.

It looks as if the result can only be to lessen Nasser's influence in the Arab world and to strengthen the position of the Western Allies. Naturally, there would be no formal announcement of any such development. But Nasser and the Soviet leaders who are trying so hard to penetrate the Middle East, will realize painfully what it means.

The Woman's View—

Outdoor Chefs Create New Business Boom

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UP) — The kitchen's annual vacation is here, giving housewives a partial rest from pots and pans and giving the men a chance to show their barbecue skills.

One charcoal manufacturer predicted this year Americans will eat a record two billion meals outdoors. One manufacturer of cooking equipment predicted sales of grills, spits, chef's hats, aprons, long-handled forks and barbecue accessories of all kinds would total 100 million dollars in 1957, compared with 90 million dollars last year and 45 million dollars the year before.

Gay Pauley

A survey by DuPont showed that 84 per cent of all American families eat some of their meals outside during the year. 55 per cent of all families prepare an outdoor meal one to three times a month, 19 per cent four to six times a month, and five per cent more than 10 times a month.

Big Outdoor Boom

Today, reported the Diamond Match Co., 36 per cent of all homes in the United States have either a portable grill or outdoor fireplace, and the number increases each year. This year, the company said, the nation will buy 140 thousand tons of charcoal briquets.

The result has been a boom in businesses catering to the outdoor chef — representing producers in such diverse fields as foods, condiments and cookbooks, garden supplies and furniture, even building and architectural concerns.

The barbecue boom is the result of the casual living trend said Ralph Olswang, head of Kamkap outdoor equipment. More persons own cars and can get to picnic grounds. More persons live in the suburbs, where patio or backyard invite meals outdoors. There is more leisure time. And each year the cooking equipment gets better.

It also gets fancier.

A tour, for instance, of New York firms selling outdoor equipment shows you can spend as much, or as little, as you want. "As much" may be $100 for an electrically-powered spit which starts with the touch of a button.

Twin Grill Offered

This season, for the first time, Oswang's Company features a "his and hers" grill, a twin one with hood and motorized spit. Other grills have cooking thermometer built in.

Among the more elaborate are wagon grills with enclosed pots and cutting boards.

But retailers report the biggest sellers are the barbecues and braziers selling for $10 to $20.

Most of the equipment is bought by men, Olswang said, and most of the time they also use it.

"The outdoor chef thinks nothing of roasting duck or turkey," said Olswang. "The steak and hamburger chef of a few years ago now cooks like a graduate of the Cordon Bleu."

Junior Clubwomen Receive Award

The Monessen Junior Women's Club was awarded second place by the Pennsylvania State Federation of Women's Clubs in the four fold program advanced by the federation and last night that award was presented to the club at a meeting in the Civic Center.

The award was made to the club for its efforts on local, state, national and international basis and indicated the local organization supported all four levels of the program.

Mrs. Joseph M. Dudas, Jr., president, opened last night's session with the Club Collect. Mrs. William Hughes reported on the last meeting and called the roll.

Annual reports were presented by Mrs. James Farquhar, finance chairman. Mrs. Robert Farr, American Homes chairman; Mrs. Frank Ezerski, telephone and transportation chairman; Mrs. L. Jones, fine arts; Mrs. Robert Schrag, education and welfare; Janice Calderone and Mrs. Stephen Druash, ways and means.

Pageant Reports

Reports were given on the Miss Mon Valley pageant, which the club is sponsoring on June 12 at Twin Coaches by Janice Calderone, general chairman; Mrs. John R. McGovern, entries chairman; Mrs. Stephen Druash, hostess chairman; Mrs. Albert Kundrat, motorcade chairman; Dolores Curcio and Mrs. Robert Gilotty, publicity and advertising; Donna Stofka, awards. Mrs. McGovern reported on the program booklet for Mrs. Herman Mihalich, who was not present and Mrs. Ezerski discussed the ticket sales.

Mrs. James Farquhar gave the financial report in the absence of the treasurer, Irene Sovich.

A moving picture on fluoridation was shown.

A letter was read thanking the club for clothing sent to a Cherokee Indian reservation.

Mrs. Robert Schrag reported on the scholarship that will be awarded at the commencement ceremonies.

The next meeting will be the Spring luncheon on June 8 with Mrs. Gilotty as chairman. Officers will be installed at that time.

The club received tickets to sell for the White Barn benefit on May 1. It is being held by Westmoreland County Federation and will benefit the retarded children's fund.

Luncheon was served by the committee in charge, Mrs. Lee Jones, Mrs. William Gilman, Mrs. Farquhar and Mrs. Emery Andricovich.

Italian Mutual Aid Ladies Have Mother's Day Program

A business session and observance of Mother's Day was held by the Ladies of the Italian Mutual Aid Society at the May meeting in the Italian Hall with Mrs. Rose Gaudio in charge. Mrs. Theressa Johnson led in prayer and salute to the flag.

Routine reports were given by Mrs. Charlotte Troilo, Italian secretary and Loretta DiBiaso, English secretary.

Plans were made to visit the Charleroi-Monessen Hospital on Friday as part of the open house program. The women will meet at the hall at 6:45 to go to the hospital.

Received as new members were Mrs. Mary Onda, Anna Katsuleris and Rosalia Bertoli. The latter two were present at the meeting.

The annual banquet, which was scheduled for the Vogue Terrace, was changed to the Ankara and it will be a June event.

Mother's Day was observed during the social hour and luncheon was served by Mrs. Theresa Parise, Theresa Parente, Saveria Gigliotti, Marie Capuano, Rose Gaudio, Mary Sardini, Theresa Dodaro, Mary Romansky, Lena Benecco, Jenny Bucci and Elizabeth DiBuono.

Mrs. Ithalia Zambelli was honored as the oldest mother, Lena Bilski, youngest and Angeline Gigliotti as the most recent mother. Netta Uhrim won the guest cake and Mildred Masci won the guest award. The dues award was won by Jenny Bucci.

The social committee named for next month included Mrs. Virginia Naccarato, Theressa Johnson, Mary Frolo, Mary Forty, Veronica Catanzaro and Mary Vivio.

Eagles Ladies Bowling League Holds Banquet

The Eagles Ladies Bowling banquet was held Saturday night at Peasant Village and following the serving of a chicken and turkey dinner the trophies were presented. Mrs. Betty Gedeon, toastmaster, asked the grace.

The Robins, the winning team, was honored and the members received trophies. The team included Romaine Secletar, captain, Wilma Dolinsky, Libby Gaspich, Lala Martin, Josephine Major, Maris Foster, Helen Wolford, Ann Pastorik.

On the Cardinal, runner-up, team, were Margaret Hupchick, Mrs. R. Koget, Jane Cheroki, Mrs. V. Sabolak, Julia Frita, Min Crum, Dorothy Wendel and Betty Gedeon.

Helen Wolford received the high single and high triple award and Mrs. A. Lombardo won the high triple and average award.

Perfect attendance awards went to Marie Timcoe, Wilma Dolinsky, Romaine Secletar, Rose Knox, Mary Teska, Elizabeth Rich, Mrs. Koget and Margaret Griggs.

Guest prizes were won by Mrs. Pastorik, Ann Guth, Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Wolford. Winning the awards at cards were Louise Nichols, Ann Komander, Betty Gedeon, Mrs. Pastorik, Julia Fritz and Thea Dominico.

Gifts were presented to the captain and officers of the league.

The women then went to the Eagles Home for a social.

League officers for next year are Mrs. Wolford, president; Mrs. Lombardo, vice president; Mrs. Koget, secretary and Mrs. Wendel, treasurer.

The Montonions Are Entertained

The Montonions were entertained at the home of Mrs. Glenna Maultsby, on Saturday.

The president, Mrs. Delcie Taylor, was in charge of the business session and a report was given on a recent successful chicken and waffle dinner.

Plans were made for a bake sale tomorrow at the Hiawatha Grill beginning at noon.

The hostess served luncheon assisted by Mrs. Agnes Claytor and Barbara Jackson. Mrs. Marion Simpson, of Graham Ave., will be next hostess.

Chatterbox Club Holds Session

The Original Chatterbox Club met Monday at the home of Mrs. Norma DeMatteo, on Knox Ave.

The prize winners at cards were Anita Vernet, Ann Kantsi and Catherine Hotchkiss. A special award was also won by Catherine Hotchkiss.

Luncheon was served. A guest was Ethel Duronio.

Next meeting will be held at the home of Dorothy Senitta, of Motheral Ave.

Socialite Club Holds Meeting

Mrs. Hazel Rone recently entertained the members of the Socialite Club at her home on Morgan Ave.

There was a brief business session and then the Five Glens, a local musical unit enertained with several selections.

Luncheon was served and the next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Helen Paige, of Graham Ave.

Regina Lodge Holds Fete

The Regina Lodge of the Sons of Italy marked the 20th anniversary of the organization and observed Mother's Day at a banquet held on Monday evening at the Park Casino. The party also honored Mrs. Rose Sabol, who has held various offices, as the "outstanding member of the year".

Mrs. Sabol was elected treasurer when the organization was formed and also served as financial secretary for many years.

Covers were laid for more than 100 members and their guests. Pink potted geraniums, pink candles and miniature mounted pink colored number "20" were used in the table appointments. A large "20" was the centerpiece at the speakers table. It was surrounded with pink wrapped gifts, which were later presented to the chairmen for each project. A program booklet and china figurine marked each place.

Invocation was by Mrs. Mary Bitonti. Mrs. Angeline Imbrogno, chairman, introduced the toastmaster, Mrs. Mary Moncini. Mrs. Angeline Bosco, venrable, extended the welcome and gave a brief resume of the club history noting that this year for the first time the lodge will present an award to a local High School girl graduating with high honors. Mrs. Bosco and the other speakers introduced paid tribute to Mrs. Sabol.

Guests Present

Past Venerable Mrs. Cosimina Nuzzacci, Grand Deputy to the local lodge, Mrs. Clara Bassi and Mrs. Mary Bitonti all spoke briefly. Other guests introduced were Mary Moncini, Natalina Yanitta, Vincetta Mauro, and Mrs. Frances Capozza. These members have previously been honored as "Mother of the Year". Members, who were similarly honored, but who were unable to be present were Mrs. Candida Gianinni, Mrs. Mary Vivio and Mrs. Concetta Manderino.

Mrs. Mary Cernuto, of Mt. Pleasant, wife of the supreme treasurer of the order, was a guest along with Mrs. Katherine Chenet, of Latrobe, wife of the assistant grand venerable and mother of the guest speaker, Miss Alberta Chenet, of Latrobe.

Miss Chenet is an officer of the Latrobe Ladies lodge and in her talk titled, "Mothers and Their Famous Sons in History", she also commended Mrs. Sabol on her contribution to the lodge.

Gifts Given

Gifts of appreciation for their service to the order were presented by Mrs. Bosco to Mrs. Josephine Tobacco, Mrs. Tess Mager, Mrs. Mary Santoro, Mrs. Rena Guiducci, Mrs. Settina Provenzano, Mrs. Cleo Angeline, Mrs. Rose Tegnelia and Mrs. Catherine Furio.

Mrs. Imbrogno and Mrs. Orlena D'Angelo, banquet chairman, were presented with gifts as were Flora DiBartlomeo and Margaret Oliver, retiring officers.

On behalf of the lodge Mrs. Bosco presented the honored guest, Mrs. Sabol, with a gold bracelet inscribed with the Sons of Italy insignia and an orchid from the officers.

A program of entertainment under the direction of Mrs. Tess Mager and Mrs. Lillian DeMarino was then presented. Mrs. Mary Sedory in a "salute to mother" sang. "Mamma" accompanied at the piano by Mary Krupa.

A take-off on a television panel show, "It Could Be You" was enacted by Mrs. DeMarino as master of ceremonies assisted by Marie Imburgia, Mrs. Settina Provenzano, Mrs. Mary Bitonti, Mrs. Mathilda Furio, Mrs. Josephine Tobacco, Mrs. Rose Sabol and Mrs. Bosco.

A "Gay Nineties" vaudeville show was then presented with Mrs. Catherine Furio in the role of "Fifi Dorsay" introducing each act. Tess Mager portrayed the "Pat Rooney of Italy" doing a soft shoe dance and a duet in pantomime, "Underneath the Arches" was presented by Mary Santoro and Dorothy Del Rosso. Settina Provenzano did a dance, Mrs. Geraldine Elyanich did the "Charleston" and Mrs. Eva Maund presented a pantomime.

A melodrama, "Mary Ann's Mortgage" was enacted in pantomime by Mrs. DeMarino, narrator, Tess Mager. Leona Kuhn and Dorothy Del Rosso.

The program ended with the group singing of "Daisy" and "Moonlight and Roses" with Mrs. Rose Tegnelia in charge of accompaniment.

Mrs. Pehote received a prize as the oldest mother present, Mrs. Helen Bucci, youngest and Mrs. Stella Mascitelli, youngest grandmother. Guest awards went to Mrs. Viola D'Altorio and Mrs. Cosimina Nuzzacci.

Assisting Mrs. Imbrogno in arranging the affair were Rena Guiducci, Theresa Parente, Lena Venneri and Mary Moncini. Mrs. D'Angelo was in charge of decorations and favors and was assisted by Elvera Bello, Elvera Dimperio, Rose Martucci and Marie Imburgia.

Legion Ladies Group Holds Benefit Party

Thomas McKee Post 28 American Legion Ladies Auxiliary held a card party last night in the Post Home.

Winning the high score prizes were Rose Wadsworth and Helen Polkabla, five hundred and Mary Arcuri and Cora Lemley, games. Vivian Wojtkowski was awarded the door prize.

In charge of the party was Mrs. Janet Pustinger, general chairman, Martha Dale, Helen Fisher, Amanda Loy, Mary Sedlar, Emma Huston, Cora Lemley, Hazel Corrick, Cora and Bernice McCallister.

In two weeks another party will be held to conclude the season.

LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. James Brant, of Bogota, Colombia, S. C., visited over the weekend with their aunts and uncles, Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Delzangle and Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo Bonari, of Monessen. The Brants have gone to California state to visit their parents. Mrs. Brant's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bonari, former local residents.

A few seats are still available in the bus chartered by St. Mary's Ladies Club to go to Pittsburgh on Sunday to attend the ordination of Paul Bovankovich, son of a former local priest. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Mary Konik and Mrs. Anna Mahalko by Friday.

Court 776 Catholic Daughters of America will hold a Mother-Daughter banquet on Sunday, May 19, at 6 o'clock at St. Leonard Hall and reservations must be made no later than tomorrow with Mrs. Edward Bartosik or Mrs. Nicholas Polkabla.

Alvin Campbell, of Schoonmaker Ave., has returned home after being a patient in the Charleroi-Monessen Hospital.

The regular meeting of the Monessen Turner's Auxiliary will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Turner Hall.

PIAA Basketball Is Big Business

The PIAA post-season basketball eliminations are big business. The 17 games in 1957 grossed no less than $57,144.35. After taxes and other expenses, some $39,642.64 was left. As usual, the PIAA took the big slice — $23,764.02. The schools were left with a comparatively small sum of $15,878.62 to share . . . Incidentally television rights for the championship game were sold to Bell Telephone for $1,000. In all, 14 of the games were carried over radio with those fees totalling $1,950. Paid attendance amounted to 45,918. Oddly enough, the title game between Sharon and Chester did NOT draw the biggest crowd. A semi-final match between Chester and Reading attracted 8,140 fans to Hershey. The Chester-Sharon game lured 7,557.

George Estok. Rostraver Junior High basketball coach, plans to pitch for Perryopolis in the Mon Valley Baseball League this season, but an injured finger will keep him sidelined for awhile . . . Speaking of Perryopolis, manager Don Mains insists that no one on the current team is being paid for his services. That was not the case last season when the Perry boys swept to the Valley League title . . . In Donora, PONY League officials are denying rumors that the program will be abandoned. As a matter of fact a fund-raising drive is planned to give the league a fresh start.

Witmyer Has Fine Pitching Record

In his four-year scholastic career, Charleroi's Carl Witmyer has won 27 games while losing just two. Monessen tagged on one of those losses last season. Witmyer's record for the current campaign is 8-0. He looks like a fine pitching prospect, but friends say he'll go after a college education first . . . Robert E. Pech, of Donora, will be an assistant manager for the Penn State basketball team next season . . . Bob George, a halfback at Centerville High last season. has won an academic scholarship to the University of Pennsylvania . . . North Cambria High School, a recent consolidation of Spangler and Barnesboro, needs a football coach. However candidates must be able to teach either mathematics or art.

Bill Mitnick, the Monessen Ozark pitcher who has appeared in all four of his team's games, has now toiled 16 2/3 innings. He has 33 strikeouts to his credit. Of equal significance, Mitnick has walked just two batters . . . In all, Mitnick has given up ten hits, including homers by Donora's Ken Barbaro and Perryopolis' Tommy Havadich. Two of the safeties garnered from him were of the scratch variety . . . Speaking of the Ozarks, their second base worries may be solved by George Stark. He made his debut at that spot the other night and responded with flawless fielding as well as a pair of doubles.

Jim Lenhart Trims to 195 Pounds

Jim Lenhart, the Charleroian, has trimmed to 195 pounds as he prepares for the upcoming football season at Pitt. Jim is determined to win the quarterback role this year. At the moment, he's playing baseball with the Charleroi Merchants . . . Donora High track coach John (Moon) Clark is proud of the manner in which his boys won the recent WPIAL qualifier at Canonsburg. The deciding match was the mile relay. Don Griger, Donora's lead runner, had the baton knocked out of his hand but he retrieved it and continued. Two teammates closed some of the gap and then Tom Urbanik, the 210 pound sophomore football fullback who runs like a gazelle, came on fast to finish third. That provided the Dragons with enough points to edge Canonsburg for the team title.

PNA Meets Ravens in Softball

Ravens will meet PNA tonight at 6 o'clock in City Softball League action at City Park.

Last night's game between the Cro-Ams and ULBA was rained out after one half inning.

The Cro-Ams had taken their turn at bat without scoring. Before the teams could change sides, the rain came down.

Tonight's game promises to be attractive. The Ravens have always presented strong City League entries.

The PNA boys also look tough this season and hope to make the playoffs.

One game is scheduled tomorrow for City Park. Italian Hall will meet the Cro-Ams.

Patterson to Dictate Terms

NEW YORK (UP)—Floyd Patterson was expected to announce today that his first defense of the heavyweight crown will be made this summer for an independent promoting group headed by Emil Lence of Brooklyn.

Young Patterson and Manager Cus d'Amato, who have broken away from the International Boxing Club, called a press conference at Leone's Restaurant for today's announcement.

Lence, former promoter of TV fights at Brooklyn's Eastern Parkway Arena, obtained application forms for a new promoter's license at the New York State Athletic Commission offices on Monday.

Manager d'Amato was expected to warn top contenders Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson, Eddie Machen and Willie Pastrano that whoever challenged for the title in June or July must do so in a fight staged by the new promoter. And that refusal to accept the promoter's terms would result in being by-passed for the title shot.

Lippe Breidbart, pilot of top contender Jackson, said today, "The Hurricane is the biggest attraction in boxing, and he'll fight for the highest bidder—title shot or no title shot. If Jim Norris offers a bigger guarantee for an outdoor fight with Eddie Machen this summer, we'll take Machen."

Since Norris and his IBC no longer have Yankee Stadium and the Polo Grounds under exclusive contract for fights,t he Patterson defense might be made at one of those parks in late June or early July.

Kurey, Baker Team Up for WPIAL Tennis

Monessen High's fine tennis duo of Joe Kurey and Jim Baker will take part in the WPIAL championships at Mt. Lebanon tomorrow.

Their first test will begin at 2 p. m.

Originally, Kurey was also to take part in the singles play. However WPIAL officials ruled that he would have to decide between one or the other.

Kurey wasted no time in picking the doubles. Along with Baker, he figures to provide Monessen with a good chance in that event.

WPIAL authorities admitted that there was no specific rule which forbids a boy from competing in both the singles and doubles tournament. They said it was a time element which dictated the decision. Both singles and doubles play will be conducted at the same time.

Rummell Picked

With Kurey out of the singles tournament. the Mon Valley section (4) will be represented by Fred Rummell of California.

Monessen High's complete tennis team will begin WPIAL elimination play next Monday against Latrobe, Section 3 champion.

The place and starting time of that match are still to be determined.

Pitt Coach to Tour Europe

Pitt football coach Johnny Michelosen is going to tour Europe this July as part of a seven man team that will put on a clinic for the Air Forces.

Along with Michelosen will be coaches Red Sanders of UCLA, Bill Murray of Duke, Cliff Speegle of Oklahoma A & M, trainer Dwayne Dixon of Indiana and officials Red Pace and Bill Downs.

The group will leave July 5 by air, and will give the clinic in Shaftesburg, England, July 8-12.

Airmen from England, France, Germany and North Africa will be flown in for the affair. Following the clinic the group will be given opportunities to visit other countries in Europe.

Deals in Prospect as Trade Deadline Nears

By UNITED PRESS

Reports of an impending deal between the Chicago White Sox and the Washington Senators cropped up today as other major league clubs sought to beat the midnight deadline on the 25-player limit.

The Washington Post and Times Herald said the White Sox were seeking outfielder Roy Sievers and infielder Pete Runnels of the Senators in exchange for outfielders Larry Doby and Jim Rivera and pitcher Bill Fischer.

The deal was proposed by Chuck Comiskey, president of the White Sox, the paper said, adding that Chicago Manager Al Lopez definitely was interested in acquiring Sievers and Runnels.

No Names Mentioned

Lopez told the United Press, "We have been talking with the Nats since spring training to see if we can work out a deal that will improve both clubs." But he said he never mentioned any names because "it's not nice to mention names to other clubs."

The White Sox, meanwhile, got down to the 25-player limit by optioning pitcher Jim McDonald to Indianapolis of the American Association and handing outfielder Bob Kennedy his outright release.

The New York Giants acquired veteran pitcher Sandy Consuegra from the Baltimore Orioles for an estimated $15,000 Tuesday night. To make room for the 36-year-old right hander, the Giants are expected to drop either southpaw pitcher Pete Burnside or infielder Foster Castleman.

Cards Sell Rookie

The St. Louis Cardinals reduced their roster to 26 players by selling rookie southpaw Robert G. Smith to the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Pirates, in turn, optioned outfielder John Powers to Columbus of the International League.

The Senators and the Cleveland Indians must drop three players before tonight's deadline, while the Milwaukee Braves must slice two men. In addition to the Giants and the Cardinals, the Cincinnati Redlegs, the Brooklyn Dodgers, the New York Yankees and the Boston Red Sox each were one player over the limit.

Some scientists estimate that the earth is about three billion years old.

Italian Road Races Cancelled

ROME, Italy (UP)—All automobile and motorcycle road races in Italy this year have been cancelled as an aftermath of last Sunday's tragic Mille Miglia auto race.

Officials of the Italian Automobile Club and the Italian Motorcycle Federation issued a joint statement Tuesday night announcing their decisions to suspend the races.

A storm of criticism followed Sunday's race in which 13 persons were killed, including Spanish Marquis Alfonso de Portago and his American co-driver, Eddie Nelson of Beloit, Wis.

The team will compete in the Tri County League and will be sponsored by Local 1229.

Ozarks Seek Fifth Win At New Eagle Tonight

Monessen Nine Off to Fast Start; Game to Be Played At Quinn Park

Those upstart Monessen Ozarks will travel to New Eagle this evening for a Mon Valley League assignment.

The game will be played at New Eagle's Quinn Park even though the site is soon to be developed into a new coal tipple.

"We hope to continue playing some of our early season games here," said New Eagle manager Frank Furiga.

The Ozarks, much to everyone's surprise, are currently atop the standings with a 4-0 record. Their play has been good enough to indicate that the Monessen boys must be regarded as serious contenders.

Iron Man

Of course much of the early season success is the result of "iron man" duty by pitcher Bill Mitnick. He has appeared in every MVL game to date and has credit for three of the wins.

Mitnick will rest tonight, though. Fuzzy Anderson, a towering fastballer, is scheduled to work.

New Eagle is off to its slowest start in years, losing three in a row. However Furiga has another sound club and his boys figure to settle down before long.

Other Games

In other games tonight Van Voorhis will go to Charleroi. Fayette City to West Newton and Donora to Perryopolis.

Four contests are scheduled for Friday. Charleroi will visit Monessen, West Newton will travel to Van Voorhis. Perryopolis will show at Fayette City and New Eagle will appear at Donora.

Charleroi Meets Brownsville Fri.

Charleroi, Section 17 baseball champion, will make its post-season WPIAL Tournament debut on Friday at Fayette City against the Section 18 kings from Brownsville.

The Brownies have already survived one tournament test, blanking Waynesburg, 4-0.

Charleroi Bows In Section 17 Baseball Finale

Charleroi, the Section 17 baseball champion, was rudely jolted by California yesterday, 5-2, in the season finale.

That setback kept the valley champs from authoring an undefeated record for the year.

Significantly the Cougars kept their ace Carl Witmyer on first base throughout the game. They want the southpaw in top shape when playoff time rolls around.

Frank Scrip fanned seven Charleroi batters and permitted just four hits.

The Trojans collected seven safeties off of three Charleroi pitchers. Ewing Bell, Tom Mathews and Doug Gasher slammed doubles for the winners.

For Charleroi, Joe Uhlman had a two-bagger.

Tri-County Tilts Are Rained Out

The newly-formed Tri-County Softball League will have to wait until today to open its 1957 season.

Three contests scheduled yesterday were rained out.

This evening's schedule will match Monessen USW against Monongahela CE at the Marion Field and Pricedale Hillcrest against Donora at the Lynnwood Field.

Two games are also on tap tomorrow. Charleroi Lee Norse will play host to Roscoe while Lock Four French Club will tackle Fairhope Rod-Gun Club in Lynnwood.

Valley League Managers in For 'Scolding'

Mon Valley Baseball League managers will be "scolded" in no uncertain terms during a special meeting on Monday at 9:15 p. m. in the Monessen Sport Shop.

Commissioner George Kuvinka called the session today after consulting with other league officials.

"We want to straighten out some teams in the best interest of the league," said Secretary Chuck Zubritsky. "League officials have been sitting in on recent games and we were not pleased by several incidents."

Zubritsky also pointed out that the managers had better attend Monday's meeting.

"We have a league rule which states that every team must be represented at official meetings," he reminded. "The league plans to fine those teams which don't show up."

Umps to Crack Down

Last week Kuvinka berrated umpires for permitting stalling tactics in early season games. He ordered them to crack down.

Now the managers are apparently in for the same scolding.

League officials were quick to point out that not all managers or teams are at fault.

"Because most of the fellows go by the rules we think it only fair to crack down on the offenders," said Kuvinka. "This is no longer a bush league."

Just Misses Prize

MEMPHIS (UP) — The No 5 pin wobbled on its edge but refused to topple and so bowler Julian Levitch lost $10,000. After 11 consecutive strikes, Levitch missed the No. 5 pin on the 12'n roll, making his score 299 Levitch wasn't very happy, for the alley manager has a standing offer of $10,000 to any bowler who rolls a perfect 300 game.

Wants Welter Rematch

NEW YORK (UP) — Promoter Teddy Brenner wants a rematch just as soon as welterweights Jimmy Archer and Tony DiBiase heal the wounds suffered in Monday night's bloody TV thriller at St. Nicholas Arena.

Brown-haired Archer, a West Side stevedore, almost flattened dark - haired, collegiate DiBiase with a terrific last-round barrage that earned him an upset, split decision and snapped Tony's unbeaten string at 19 straight.

"It was the fight of the year," declared Brenner. And the yelling, arm-waving 1,574 fans, who witnessed the savage brawl between the 22-year-old longshoreman and the 21-year-old geology student of Astoria, N.Y., seemed to agree with him.

Archer, registering his 11th consecutive victory, weighed 146¾ pounds to DiBiase's 148, but Archer had the heavier artillery. DiBiase, favored at 12-5, had the greater speed, skill and body-punching ability.

DOCTORING YOUR GOLF

By CARY MIDDLECOFF

Poop Shot

The chip shot from a sand trap is delicate, to be attempted under ideal conditions. These conditions include an exceptionally good lie in the sand, no high bank or other intervening obstacle between you and the edge of the green, and room for considerable roll after the ball lands on the green.

Even with all these conditions, the shot can be dangerous. Hit slightly behind the ball and the sand will slow down the clubhead, making for a little "poop shot" that stays in the trap. If doubt exists as to the advisability of the chip, resolve the doubt in favor of the safer explosion shot.

The chip from the sand calls for most of the weight on the left foot, the eye glued on the back of the ball, and a smooth stroke DOWN AND THROUGH the ball. Don't try to pick the ball out of the sand with a lifting action of the hands. Let the loft of the club give the ball the lift it needs.

This shot can be made effectively with any lofted iron from the six through the wedge, depending on the amount of roll you want. Don't try it with any club of less loft than the six iron.

Gaskill Gets Pitt Golf Job

Willard (Bud) Gaskill, former professional at The Nemacolin Country Club, has been named at the University of Pittsburgh's Golf and Recreation Center at Wildwood.

Gaskill is a native of Rochester, New York and has served as a pro at Hornell, N Y., Seneca Lake Country Club, Geneva, N Y., Bolivar, N Y and Nemacolin before accepting the Pitt job.

The gold course at Pitt-Wildwood Club will be open this Saturday morning, May 18, for limited play.

Pirates Top Cubs As Thomas Sprees

CHICAGO (UP) — For the first time in the season, the Pittsburgh Pirates have won two games in a row.

The Bucs did it here Tuesday when they defeated the Cubs, 8-6, in a game that took 3 hours and 3 minutes to play.

If they beat the Cubs again today, when Bob Friend (2-3) takes the mound against Moe Drabowsky (1-2), they will exchange places in the league standings. A victory for Pittsburgh would put it in seventh place and drop Chicago to last.

The Pirates announced Tuesday the purchase of Robert Smith, rookie lefthander with no record from St. Louis. Smith, 27, was drafted from San Francisco in the Pacific Coast League last winter and pitched 9 2-3 innings in six games for the Cards. To make way for him, the Pirates optioned outfielder John Powers to Columbus of the International League, subject to 24-hour recall.

Hits Homer

Frank Thomas hit a homer, two doubles and a single in five times at bat in Tuesday's game, which was the seventh straight home game lost by the Cubs.

Thomas' double in the first inning drove in Dee Fondy and his fifth-inning homer started the Pirates on a three-run rally.

The Pirates won despite three Chicago homers, by Dale Long in the first with one man on base, by Jim Bolger in the ninth with a man aboard and by Cal Neeman in the eighth with the bases empty.

Arroyo Wins

The victory went to Luis Arroyo, who relieved starter Ron Kline in the fourth and in turn was relieved by Elroy Face with two out in the ninth after Bolger's blast. Arroyo struck out eight batters in winning his first game of the season against four defeats.

Dick Drott, who beat the Pirates last Wednesday, suffered his fourth loss against two victories. He was the first of four Chicago pitchers.

'New' Lou Nova Is Now Reciting Poetry

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)— Lou Nova lost a rematch with Shakespeare today but claimed a decision over world heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson.

"In my day," quoth the bard of boff. Patterson would have been a good sparring partner. Believe me, it's tougher on the boards than it ever was on the canvas."

This is primarily because Nova these days works up a sweat as a freestyle elocutionist.

Ham-Acted Debut

Last winter, before the pop-eyed pugilistic multitude, he ham-acted his debut at Carnegie Recital Hall before a packed house of some 66 people. Mushky Jackson, one of the cauliflower critics on hand, counted the house that night and announced defiantly that "even Nova couldn't have kept the crowd that small at Madison Square Garden."

True or false, Tuesday the California kid outdid himself in a poetic comeback—or repeat performance — at Carnegie Hall.

There were 33 people present. But you have to admit one thing. As usual, he knocked himself out.

The piece de resistance was "The Highwayman," and Alfred Noyes would never have written it, believe me, if he had a suspicion that it was going to be "acted" out in a sparring session. The golden - haired, silver - bedecked and brassy-voiced Nova jabbed the highwayman silly. He skipped a phantom rope over the moors and, truly touching, pulled an Arthur Donovan complete to the 10 count as the bandido bowed out.

Blamed On Rain

"Rain undoubtedly kept most of the crowd away," said the man who proved his dramatic quality when he fought Joe Louis, although outside there wasn't enough dew to send an airmail letter. "Don't you think the selections were charming?"

If this loses you, be my guest.

"My favorite," he added, "is Kipling's 'If'."

You have to go back at that point and think that "if" Nova hadn't been ruined by Two - Ton Tony Galento on a very bloody night in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium, he might not have been reciting poetry today.

Palmer to Help Open New Golf Course at Latrobe

Arnold Palmer goes home Sunday to play Holiday Acres, new 18 hole course near Latrobe, Pa.

Palmer, second leading money winner on this year's pro circuit, will conduct a Golf Clinic beginning at 1 p. m., with the exhibition beginning at 2 p m. Both activities are open to the public free of charge.

Palmer's tee shot off number 5 should be of special interest to the gallery and golfers playing Holiday Acres on Sunday. Prizes are being awarded to the three lucky golfers who best approximate the length of Palmer's drive.

Arnie will complete Sunday against his Tutor-Father — Deacon Palmer, Frank Kiraly, the head pro at Holiday Acres, and Perry Del Vecchio, the pro at Greensburg Country Club.

Palmer's visit is part of the ceremonies attending the official opening of Holiday Acres, one of the country's most modern and picturesque courses. Holiday Acres is located on Rt 981 just one mile north of Latrobe.

Dressen to Scout For Washington

WASHINGTON (UP) — Charlie Dressen doesn't plan to waste any time in his new job as talent scout for the Washington Senators.

After signing a three-year contract as "assistant to the president" Monday, Dressen revealed he will leave for New York shortly to discuss a possible deal with the Yankees.

However, Club President Calvin Griffith said Dressen's new duties will not be limited to talks with major league clubs.

"Charlie will be visiting minor league teams in the higher classifications as well as major league cities," Griffith pointed out. "He will negotiate for players through trades, purchases and other available means."

Dressen was fired as manager of the Senators only last week.

Milwaukee Nips Bums To Remain in First

By UNITED PRESS

Ernie Johnson replaced Bob Buhl as Brooklyn's Public Enemy No 1 today on the strength of a second straight brilliant relief job that enabled the Milwaukee Braves to take sole occupancy of first place in the National League.

A 32-year-old native of Brattleboro, Vt., Johnson shut out the Dodgers for 2 1-3 innings Tuesday night to preserve the Braves' 3-2 victory and extend his string of scoreless innings against Brooklyn to 8 1-3. Johnson blanked the Dodgers with one hit for six innings on May 5 when he picked up his only victory of the current season.

The triumph over the Dodgers boosted the Braves into undisputed possession of the league lead when the Philadelphia Phillies ended the Cincinnati Redlegs' 12-game winning streak, 10-8, on Ed Bouchee's ninth-inning homer.

Ruben Gomez won his fifth game as the New York Giants whipped the St Louis Cardinals, 5-3, and the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Chicago Cubs, 8-6, in the other N L. games. Duke Maas also scored his fifth victory when he pitched the Detroit Tigers to a 2-0 win over the Boston Red Sox in the only American League game. Kansas City at New York, Chicago at Washington and Cleveland at Baltimore were rained out.

Boyd Takes on Vaughn Tonight

CHICAGO (UP) —Middleweight Bobby Boyd, trying to fight back into title contention, meets a major stumbling block in Willie Vaughn tonight in a 10-round battle before the television cameras.

Vaughn, 25, was ranked only 10th among the 160-pounders by the National Boxing Assn., and he has an overall record of 32 wins, 13 losses and four draws, compared to Boyd's 42 victories and only seven defeats.

But Vaughn's most important fight was a "no contest" with Joey Giardello.

Boyd boasted a nine-fight winning streak and was one of the top three ranked middleweights until last Sept 28 when he met Giardello. The Philadelphian pounded him mercilessly and finally won by a knockout in the fifth round, breaking Boyd's jaw with the finishing punch.

Race Ban Charged In Schools

HARRISBURG (UP) — Three Pennsylvania school districts still practice racial segregation in public schools while in a fourth district the races are separated for some student activities, a state report showed today.

A Public Instruction Department survey disclosed that integration is not in effect in the Steelton-Highspire district in Dauphin County and Coatesville and Kennett Consolidated districts in Chester County. The city of Scranton reported that student dances are segregated at all schools in the community.

Coatesville authorities indicated that separation of races is in effect in its elementary schools and at the James Adams Junior High School but said complete integration will be effected within three years.

Kennett Consolidated officials said segregation affects 50 third grade students and two teachers but the condition will be rectified by the beginning of the next school year.

At Steelton, not only are there segregated schools but student activities — dances, a Hi-Y club and an hour society —a lso practice racial bias.

Gov. George M. Leader, who ordered the survey, said he instructed the department to take steps to "stamp out segregation in the few remaining areas where it has been found to exist."

Asks Further Survey

"I also have requested the superintendent of public instruction to conduct a further survey next fall to make certain that this has been done," Leader said.

Disclosure of the segregation practices in the four Pennsylvania school districts came three years after the U.S. Supreme Court decision outlawing the practice. The schools also can be prosecuted under a 1935 Pennsylvania "Equal Rights Law" which provides for fines.

The department survey showed that segregation is eliminated in all of the other 2,437 school districts in the Commonwealth. Forty nine school systems in 20 counties said they employed Negro teachers and no school district reported a policy against hiring Negro teachers.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, department superintendent, termed the survey "preliminary" but added it "indicates that there are areas in Pennsylvania where racial integration is not complete."

"The department is not charged with enforcement of anti-segregation laws," Boehm said, "and local parties must take their grievances to local courts. Of course, the department expects complete compliance with all state and federal statutes as soon as possible."

Meetings Opened Under New Law

HARRISBURG (UP)—The General Assembly today considered legislation which would open to the public trustees meetings in all state-aided and state-owned colleges and universities in Pennsylvania.

The bill of state Sen. Jo Hays (D-Centre) Tuesday would prohibit closed meetings by boards of trustees, except in executive sessions, at which the boards would be prohibited from making any official action.

A similar bill was introduced in the Legislature earlier to open meetings of all other government boards, commissions and agencies but it was drastically amended in the House to exclude state agencies.

Demand Indictments Against Magazine

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The state and angry Hollywood celebrities today demanded that the county grand jury return criminal libel indictments against Confidential Magazine.

The jurors Tuesday opened a probe into charges that the magazine was obscene and printed "out-right lies" about celebrities.

Liberace and red-haired actress Maureen O'Hara were unexpected witnesses at the opening day's session. Both the smiling pianist and Miss O'Hara said they voluntarily appeared before the jurors to aid in bringing indictments against the magazine.

The wavy-haired pianist within minutes after leaving the grand jurors backed up his protests against the controversial publication by filing a 25 million dollar libel suit against Confidential, Inc. The suit was based on an article in the current issue of the magazine titled: "Why Liberace's theme song should be 'Mad About the Boy.'"

Liberace labeled the article as "immoral, indecent and obscene." He charged the story was "replete with lies and falsehoods."

Miss O'Hara said as a mother of a 12-year-old daughter she felt it was her duty to cooperate in the investigation. She said she told the jurors that the magazine had printed an article about her and added the story was "a complete lie and damaged me both personally and professionally."

In other testimony, Howard Rushmore, former editor of Confidential, said he told the jurors behind closed doors how the magazine got its items from "call girls, private eyes and bed partners."

Senate to Act On Bill Giving Faculty Raises

HARRISBURG (UP)—Legislation to raise minimum wages of faculties of the 14 state teachers' colleges $500 a year moved to the floor of the Senate today with only minor amendments.

The Senate Education Committee reduced the number of annual increments of associate and assistant professors from 10 to eight, and inserted a clause which would require successful completion of a three year probation period before a faculty member could receive the immediate two increment pay raise which was authorized by the original bill.

The measure retains the $6,000 a year base pay for professors, with $300 annual increments for 10 years. Associate professors would receive $5,500 a year, with $250 increments. Qualifications for associate professors would be raised from 60 to 70 hours of graduate credit.

A companion bill, still in committee, would appropriate $750,000 to pay the new salaries for the next two years.

Claims Soviet Has Freed Most Labor Prisoners

MOSCOW (UP) —A top Soviet legal officer told an American university professor the Soviet Union has freed more than 70 per cent of its prisoners and closed two-thirds of its Siberian labor camps since Stalin's death, it was disclosed today.

Prof. Harold J. Berman, Harvard Law School expert on Soviet law, said the hitherto unpublicized action was recounted to him Tuesday night by Soviet Deputy Procurator Gen. P. I. Kudryavtsev.

Kudryavtsev said less than 2 per cent of the persons now in jail are political prisoners, and most of these are wartime traitors who collaborated with the Germans against Soviet citizens.

Kudryavtsev's office roughly resembles the U.S. office of attorney general but with much broader powers.

He said 52 per cent of the prisoners were freed immediately after an amnesty law was issued in 1953.

He said the council of ministers issued a decree last Oct. 25 providing for elimination of "corrective labor camps"

No Emergency Drills; Nest Holds Up Works

CHICAGO (UP)—There'll be no more emergency drills at Glenview Naval Air Station until a family of fledgling fliers earns its wings

Bob Mohr, operator of the emergency crew's 80-ton steel crane, discovered a robin's nest tucked away in the steel beams two weeks ago. Tuesday, he reported that one of mother robin's five eggs had hatched.

Mohr said the robins refuse to leave the nest even when the huge diesel - powered crane is moved. The operator tied a cheesecloth net under the nest to prevent an accident while the crane travels.

Glenview personnel asked experts at Brookfield Zoo if the next could be transferred to a safe spot But Carl Plath, the zoo's bird expert, warned against it, saying the parents probably would desert the nest.

So flight operations resolved the problem by directing Mohr to "roll only if there is a real emergency." In the meantime, daily emergency drills were cancelled until the baby robins reach flight status, expected in about two weeks.

"Guess we can go along," said Cmdr. Pat E Russell, flight operations officer. "We're a kind of nest for a lot of flying boys ourselves"

Lias 'Built' Wheeling Track

WHEELING, W. Va. (UP)—In the seven years William G. (Big Bill) Lias ran Wheeling Downs race track here before the government placed it in receivership in 1952, the average daily mutuel handle was increased more than $107,000.

Lias gained control of the half-mile oval on beautiful Wheeling Island at an auction on Nov. 2, 1945 and built it into a prosperous business.

In 1946, the first year Lias supervised the horse races, the daily handle was only $123,056 while in 1952 it had risen to a hefty $230,121.

Lias lost control of the property when the government placed it in receivership while levying a claim for back tax payments against the portly owner, a former bootlegger and gambler.

The exact amount was settled Monday in court here when Federal Judge Harry E. Watkins approved a government motion to set the tax and penalty claim at $3,285,632. Watkins also ordered sale of the track June 12, to satisfy a portion of that claim.

Bidding on the property this year will be different than it was 12 years ago when Lias paid $262,500 for it.

In that auction sale, also to satisfy creditors, Lias outlasted five other bidders. He finally went $500 over the top bid of John Masoni and Sam Lombardo of Cleveland, Ohio to gain the track.

PARENTE 'WASTED' NEARLY $2,000,000.00

Since 1946 Mayor Parente has WASTED nearly $2,000,0000.00 of City Tax money by:

1. By paying higher interest charges on bond issues by not taking advantage of money market conditions.
2. Creating false jobs for machine friends.
3. Helping friends make fast bucks on City deals, such as paying high prices for Parking Plaza lots, etc.
4. Playing politics with the $200,000.00 "REVOLVING FUND".
5. Doing unnecessary projects, and making blundering miscalculations.
6. Spent $1,400.00 on a concrete "SKATING RINK" at 9th Street Park. This was NEVER USED.
7. WASTED a good sum of money on "FOUR" extra unnecessary and WORTHLESS parking surveys.
8. Instead of doing a good job in 1949 on the Seneca street sewer when interest rates were LOW; now we have to do the "SAME THING" "TWICE" by putting in a 30" sewer because the 18" is "TOO SMALL" after only "SIX" years of "THEIR (EXPERIENCED) BLUNDERING MISCALCULATIONS". It is going to cost $800,000.00 for 30" sewer.
9. On the Parking Plaza "WHITE ELEPHANT" whose cost is $350,000.00.
10. By selling the $75.00 penny parking meters for $10.00 each which someday the City will have to buy back. Here we lost nearly $20,000.00.
11. By NOT using "HIS INFLUENCE" to help save the FOUNDRY site. "HE" helped Jobs, Inc., but NOT THIS. "WHY"?
12. Giving away money INVESTED on the City Bus Terminal site—Street and sidewalk paving, etc. Lost about $10,000.00 here.
13. Wasted tax money on "miscellaneous" items too numerous to mention.
14. Paid $5,000.00 TOO MUCH for the Third Street Lot.

The City collects in Wage and Real Estate taxes between $500,000 and $700.000 yearly. For TWELVE years that totals over $7.000,000; then add over a $1,000,000 worth of bonds they floated. This totals over $8.000,000. DO "YOU" SEE $8,000,000 worth of improvements in the City? I DON'T! Over $6,500,000 was used on maintenance and wasteful spending. How "MUCH" was for "REAL" improvements during those TWELVE years?
Yes, Parente is "EXPERIENCED" in "WASTING" your tax money and "HE" is the cause of us being the "CITY BEHIND".
I place FULL responsibility on Parente, because when one councilman questioned "PARENTE'S" right to make an appointment in his department, Parente said, "I AM STILL MAYOR, HOW DARE "YOU" QUESTION MY "AUTHORITY", and immediately, the Parente "PAID" propagandist spread "DUMP VICTORIA". Who's "BIG" boss? Yes, Parente!
BREAK "PARENTE" before Parente "BREAKS MONESSEN".
DON'T MAKE IT "SIXTEEN" years of Parente BLUNDERS.

A "SMALL" MAN

The Mayor's job is an important job.

When he uses the office as a club over individuals and organizations; when he regards every service performed by the City as a personal favor by him; when he feels it is his privilege to threaten people including our City employees; when he has the ridiculous idea that no one should dare differ with him — that man is SMALL and should not be Mayor of Monessen.

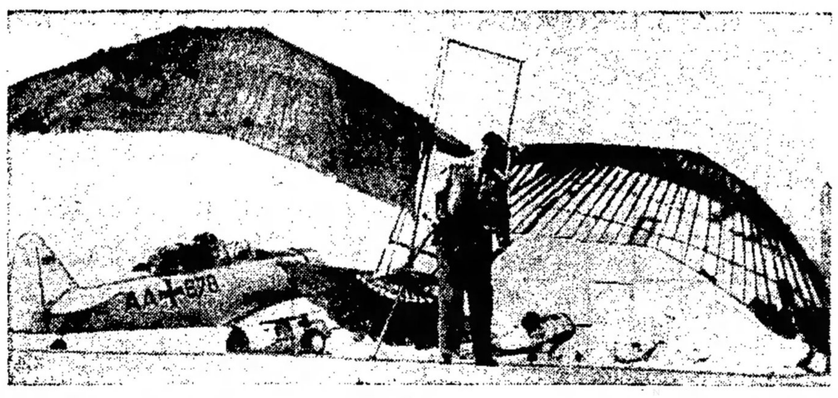
Bill Counted Out in Assembly

COLUMBIA, S. C. (UP) —Rep. William Dobbins introduced a resolution in the state legislature to require legislators "having experience in the arts of judo, 'rassling', boxing and fisticuffs" to insert such information in the legislative manual.

"It behooves the novice and lesser skilled members to have knowledge of such information for their protection," the resolution said.

The resolution, prompted by a fist-fight last week between two senators, was given a quick one-two and counted out.



WHAT'S THIS OLD BIRD? — It's one of the earliest of flying machines, found in attic of house occupied by the late German inventor Alois Wolfmueller and believed to have been built in 1894. It is shown at Landsberg airport with a modern German plane. Soon it will be in a museum in Munich.

Doctor's Trial Winds Up Today

LEWISTOWN, Pa. (UP)—Judge Paul S. Lehman was to deliver his charge to the jury today in the murder trial of Dr. Samuel L. Woodhouse Jr., 52, Milroy physician accused of the rifle slaying of his foster daughter, Elizabeth, nearly four years ago.

The defense and prosecution wrapped up their cases Tuesday in summations to the jury. The panel of 11 men and one woman may return a verdict of guilty of first or second degree murder, voluntary manslaughter, or not guilty by reason of insanity.

District Attorney R. Lee Ziegler asked for a first degree murder conviction on the grounds the slaying of the 16-year-old girl was a premeditated act. The Commonwealth case was based primarily on the testimony of state police officers who investigated the crime.

Defense attorney Paul E. Fetterolf relied largely on the testimony of psychiatrists to support his contention Woodhouse was insane when he killed his foster daughter Aug. 6, 1953. Mrs. Helen E. Woodhouse also took the stand in her husband's behalf.

Sgt. Edward Rowan, who headed the investigation into the crime was the chief prosecution witness. He testified concerning his finding of the body and a statement made by the physician in which Woodhouse admitted the slaying.

Dr. Hamlin C. Eaton, superintendent of Harrisburg State Hospital from which Woodhouse was recently released as cured, testified the physician was insane the day of the crime.

Dr. Baldwin W. Keyes, Philadelphia psychiatrist and neuropsychiatric specialist, said Woodhouse had the "fixed idea that he and his daughter were going to deteriorate mentally." He said Woodhouse planned the slaying on that basis.

Graham Crusade To Open Tonight

NEW YORK (UP) —Evangelist Billy Graham opens his New York crusade tonight in Madison Square Garden to what is expected to be a standing room only audience.

Graham, who has said he regards New York as his supreme challenge, plans to talk on the Ten Commandments and the sermon on the mount.

The crusade is being sponsored by the Protestant Council of the City of New York which has put up a $900,000 budget for the two month, seven-nights-a - week campaign.

Different Twist To Old Story

WASHINGTON (UP) — Rep. Jamie L. Whitten (D-Miss.) told the House a story about a farmer's daughter but the punch line had an unusual twist.

Whitten was attacking the Agriculture Department's rural development program Tuesday. Suddenly he said:

"Some farmers may have attractive daughters. Some agents may be handsome. The program may lead to romance. It may lead to many things."

But he said it's not going to lead to farm prosperity as long as Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson persists in reducing price supports and planting allotments.

Several Republicans accused Whitten of being "partisan."

Wide-open Race Is Expected for McCarthy's Seat

MILWAUKEE, Ws. (UP) — A three and possibly a four-way race among Republicans seeking to fill the late Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy's Senate seat in a special election apeapred certain today.

Former Gov. Walter Kohler and Lt. Gov. Warren Knowles formally announced their candidacies Tuesday, and former Rep. Glenn Davis was expected to throw his hat in the ring today.

A fourth possible GOP contender was Rep. Alvin O'Konski (R-Wis.) who has said he is seriously considering entering the race.

However, there was still some question over whether Gov. Vernon Thomson would call the special election to fill McCarthy's unexpired term.

Wisconsin law requires that the governor either call an election or leave the post vacant until the regular 1958 election. Some GOP leaders have pressed for a change in state laws to enable Thomson to appoint a Republican successor.

At least three Democrats were standing by ready to declare their candidacies in the primary. They were William Proxmire, three-time candidate for governor; Rep. Henry Reuss of Milwaukee and state Sen. Henry Maier.

UP Editors to Meet Friday At Penn State

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (UP) —The second annual business session of the United Press Editors of Pennsylvania will be held at the Nittany Lion Inn this Friday.

The meeting, scheduled for 10 a.m., is being held in conjunction with the two-day Pennsylvania Press Conference on Friday and Saturday. Among the items on the UPEP program are election of officers and selection of the site and date for the association's annual summer meeting.

One of the feature speakers at the Press Conference will be Charles McCann, United Press foreign news analyst who writes "Foreign News Commentary" and "News Outlook" for the U.P. service. He will address the Friday luncheon, presided over by Joseph H. Adleman, PSNE president and state editor of the Easton Express.

The Press Conference is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association, the Pennsylvania Society of Newspaper Editors, and the School of Journalism at Pennsylvania State University.

EXPERTS TRACE COMET — Broken lines indicate path taken by Comet Arend-Roland when it was visible to sky-watchers last week, according to the American Museum-Hayden Planetarium in New York. While the comet, since its discovery by Belgian astronomers last November, has created keen interest in the astronomical world, it was not as spectacular as hoped for.

Couple in 80s Elope In Denver

DENVER (UP)—An Indiana couple who eloped because their children thought octogenarian romance was foolish planned a new life in Denver today.

"We don't plan to go back to Indiana," said the bride, 84-year-old Ellen Belle Utley.

"We both have nest eggs and can be independent," she said. "We like Denver and hope to settle here."

Her fond, smiling husband, William Sandford Utley, is 88.

"We really did elope," he said at their Denver hotel.

"Our children didn't like it when we started keeping company. They thought it was a lot of foolishness. But we decided to get married anyway."

Utley said he engineered the elopement by telling his son at Evansville, Ind., that he was going to Denver for a pension convention. The convention won't be held until June 24.

'Sneaked Away'

His son saw Utley, a retired barber and part-time shoe salesman, off on the train at Evansville on May 8.

"Ellen Belle lived in Mount Vernon, Ind.," Utley said. "She sneaked away and got on the train when it went through Mount Vernon."

At Nashville, Ind., they got off the train and were married. Then they started the honeymoon trip to Denver, arriving here last Friday.

"I've had my eye on Ellen Belle ever since we were children in Farmersville, Ind.," Utley said. "But my first cousin, Floyd Thomas Utley, beat me to it and married her. I was too bashful to ask."

Utley married another girl, had a son, and was widowed in 1946. Ellen Belle's first husband died in 1951.

Between them, they have two sons, three grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Dulles Supports Claim

WASHINGTON (UP)—Secretary of State John Foster Dulles has come up with a list of court decisions to support his claim that the Constitution's guarantee of press freedom relates to publication and not gathering of news.

The list was issued in response to requests from newsmen for citations to back Dulles' argument.

Dulles raised the issue recently in a letter to Arthur Hays Sulzberger, publisher and chairman of the board of the New York Times. The letter, explaining the State Department's ban on travel by U.S. newsmen to Red China, said freedom of the press relates only to publication of news.

The first decision listed by Dulles was a 1930 Supreme Court ruling saying, "It is the chief purpose of the guaranty to prevent restraints upon publication."

The State Department said this decision was reaffirmed by the court in 1951.

In a 1946 decision, according to Dulles' list, the Supreme Court said "the purpose of the Constitution was not to erect the press into a privileged institution, but to protect all persons in their right to print."

Dulles also cited rulings by the New York Court of Appeals, the highest court of that state, and the Pennsylvania Supreme Court.

He suggested during his news conference Tuesday that American news organizations hire foreigners to cover news in Red China for them. He said this would not subject Americans to the mistreatment that has befallen U.S. citizens in Communist China, while still providing Americans with news of Red China.

Housewife Will Need Radar in The Near Future

PITTSBURGH (UP) — The American housewife, whose culinary efforts are backed by the latest in kitchen aids, some day will add another to her vast repertoire of cooking tricks—radar.

In this case, however, it will be used not as a guide through a cluttered kitchen, but as a food preservant.

Scientists at Raytheon Manufacturing Co.'s food lab are using radar electronic energy to preserve fresh and cooked foods so they may be stored at room temperature indefinitely without refrigeration.

The new process is expected to make available normally perishable meats, fish, fruits and vegetables in unfrozen form without loss of flavor, texture or nutrient value.

Dr. David A. Copson, manager of Raytheon's food lab, revealed the new process today in a talk before 2,500 food specialists at the annual convention of the institute of food technologists here.

Friendship Circle Class Banquet

The annual Mother-Daughter banquet, sponsored by the Friendship Circle class of the Wyano E. U. B. Church, was held last Thursday evening. The Rev. Brownfield, pastor, offered the invocation.

Included on the program was a film by the Pittsburgh Plate Glass Co., colored slides and a film, "Birthday Party."

One of the most interesting events of the evening was the baby picture game. Mrs. Thelma Leahko was awarded the prize. Fifty-nine attended the banquet.

On Mother's Day, at the church, two potted plants were presented to the oldest mother, Mrs. Sam Bashioum, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Gene Hershberger.

Stormy Bowling League Banquet

The Stormy Bowling League of West Newton held its annual spring banquet Saturday evening at the Vogue Terrace. Prizes were awarded to the winning team; the girl with high average; high single game; high three games, and low average.

The members of the winning team, The Cyclones, were: Evelyn Werner, Mary Coccagna, Carol Marconi, Elizabeth Tumbry, Millie Klun, Marge Padgett and Sophie Zakan. Faye Walko received three awards those for high average, high single game, and high three games. Low average went to Katie Byzon.

James Smithson, founder of the Smithsonian institution, was English and never visited the United States.

Many Free Polio Clinics Down; Vaccine Shortage

HARRISBURG (UP)—The state Health Department disclosed today that many free polio clinics throughout Pennsylvania have been forced to shut down because of a shortage of Salk vaccine.

Dr. W. D. Schrack Jr., head of the department's Polio Vaccine Control Division, said the supply of vaccine is currently 19,000 vials behind demand and manufacturers are accepting orders only on an "if and when" basis. The shortage represents approximately 171,000 individual shots.

"We are getting near the end of the school term and interest in Salk vaccine shots has increased tremendously with the approach of summer," Dr. Schrack explained. "In 10 days we have whittled orders down to 7,000 vials but we have received no shipments since last Monday."

The director said demand began running ahead of supply early in March when interest in the program boomed.

"Until then we were buying the vaccine almost at will and between Jan. 10 and March 6 purchased 170,000 cc's," he said. "All of it was good for six months," he added.

Civil War Vet Has 111th Birthday Party

GATE CITY, Va. (UP)—Hundreds of well-wishers will travel up to the mountain home of Civil War veteran John Salling near here today to congratulate him on his 111th birthday and present him with a 111-pound cake.

It will be the biggest birthday celebration the old warrior has ever had, according to those who are planning it. A motorcade of more than 100 automobiles will leave Gate City to go to the ceremony, hear a rendition of "Dixie" and listen to speeches.

"General" Salling, one of three surviving Civil War veterans in the nation, will also receive a requested summer-weight Confederate uniform made specially for him since Confederate soldiers were not issued summer uniforms.

Bags of congratulatory messages, sent from throughout the United States, were also to be taken to him, including one from the White House and another from Virginia Gov. Thomas B. Stanley, a spokesman for the celebration said.

Salling, born May 15, 1846 only a few hundred yards from his present home, has lived his full life within Scott County here in the mountains of southwest Virginia. Serving in the Civil War as a teen-age boy, he never got more than 30 miles from his home and never saw a battle. He spent the war digging saltpeter out of caves near here for Confederate gunpowder as a private in the Army of Virginia.

Candy Eating Up

WASHINGTON (UP) —The Department of Commerce reports that Americans consumed 1 billion dollars worth of candy in 1956—4 per cent more than the year before.

Lawrence for Leader's Program

INDIANA, Pa. (UP)— Gov. George M. Leader's college scholarship program is not a "pie in the sky" proposal, Mayor David L. Lawrence of Pittsburgh said Tuesday night.

Lawrence told 585 persons at a Jefferson Day Dinner sponsored by the Indiana County Democratic Committee the program is needed urgently to help meet the need for skilled technical and scientific personnel.

He also said the Leader administration has made significant advances in the fields of mental health, fair employment practices, highway programs and recreation.

Dorcas Class Holds Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet

The annual Mother-Daughter banquet for the Dorcas Class of the First Baptist Church was held on Monday evening in the social rooms of the First Presbyterian Church. Spring flowers and candles in blended pastel shades decorated the tables. Each cover was marked with a pastel shade handkerchief in the form of a boutonaire.

Grace was sung by the group and before the serving the class president, Mrs. Henrietta Younkin, welcomed the members and guests some of whom have been attending for the past several years.

A program after the serving opened with devotions by Jennie Trich, who used as her topic, "The Mother of Jesus". Prayer was offered by Mrs. Zelma Popp. Mrs. Evelyn Stump gave the greeting to the mothers and the response was given by Mrs. John Trozzo.

A solo, "When Mother Sang Those Old Time Songs" was presented by Mrs. Younkin and Mrs. Virginia Wells gave a reading, "If I Was the Fellow" and her second selection was "A Wonderful Mother".

A piano solo, "Memories of Mother" was played by Mrs. Stump. Mrs. Younkin sang "The Sunshine of Your Smile" dedicated to all the mothers with a short talk, "What A Smile Means to Your Child". Mrs. Younkin then led in the group singing of "MOTHER". Mrs. Ruth Harper was the accompanist.

Mrs. Laura Budd, class teacher, gave a talk, "Thoughts of Mother".

The speaker was Mrs. Donna VanBremen and her topic was "Mother" in which she traced the life of a mother from the birth of her child to the time of marriage.

Mrs. Younkin presented a gift to Mrs. Mintie Corwin, 89, the oldest mother present. The youngest mother present, Mrs. Mrs. William Benedetti, received a gift. Mrs. Budd was presented as "Mother of the Class" and was given a gift.

Mrs. Wells presented gifts to those taking part in the program.

In charge of arrangements were Jennie Trich, location and menu; Marie Wallace, Rosella Kimball and Alberta Brandon, program; Zelma Popp, Persis Lewitsky, Olga Martin and Jennie Trich, decorations; Virginia Wells and Henrietta Younkin, gifts; Mrs. Brandon, reservations.

The next meeting will be June 13 as a covered dish at the church.

Fire Practice Is Planned for Next Monday

President Vic Silvestro was in charge of the Monday evening meeting of the North Belle Vernon Fire Co. held in the fire hall. Fire Chief Robert Whitelaw gave his report and announced that there will be a fire practice next Monday at 7 o'clock.

This will be the final practice session of the season and will be held outdoors.

It was reported that the landbase radios have been purchased and will be installed as soon as they are received.

A committee was appointed to arrange a trip for the firemen to Pittsburgh to see a Pittsburgh Pirate baseball game.

After the next meeting there will be a strawberry festival for the members.

Washington Twp. Fire Auxiliary Honors Mothers

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Washington Township Fire Co. met Monday evening in the fire hall for a brief business and a social period. Mrs. Honor Hamer, president, was in charge and there were 21 answering to roll call.

The visitation of the sick committee reported that Connie Carr was a patient in the Charleroi-Monessen Hospital.

The ways and means committee announced plans for a party on May 20 at 7:30 in the fire hall.

After the session there was a Mother's Day social. Recorded music was played and the women were seated around a large table decorated with red carnations in honor of the mothers in attendance.

Mrs. Emma Wilson was honored as the oldest mother present and Mrs. Shirley Halinka was the youngest mother present. Mrs. May Mitchell was the mother, who had the largest family.

The evening's entertainment was arranged by Mrs. Frances Seibert and Mrs. Edna Axton and luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Dorothy Winn and Mrs. Hazel Kreuter. The next hostesses will be Mrs. Peg DePaolo and Mrs. Irene Bonnell.

Big Battle for Tax Collector in N. Belle Vernon

A big battle is in prospect in North Belle Vernon's primary election next Tuesday.

Seven persons have filed for the two nominations for tax collector, four Democrats and three Republicans.

Seeking reelection to the post on the Republican ticket is Harriet Wilkinson. Her two opponents are Warren Williams and Ruby Owens.

Democratic candidates for tax collector are Alice Ventura, Theresa Lupori, Raymond Dalfonso and John Wilkinson.

Ten Democrats are seeking the four nominations to council. Seeking reelection are William Rowley, Donald Pender, Ross Boston and Tony Stringhill. They are opposed by James Reed, Homer Zucconi, William Mascara, Mickey Gelotti, Charles Klisowski and Nello Ferrari.

No Republicans filed for Council.

Clifford Breakwell is seeking reelection as a North Belle Vernon school director on the Democratic ticket and his long opponent is Michael Yenscik. Incumbent Harold Underwood, John Werton and Lloyd Christoper are Republican candidates.

Incumbent Burgess Leroy Jones, Democrat, has no opposition on either ticket.

Democrat Mary Silvania has no opposition for auditor.

Council Takes no Action On Bids for Bond Issue

Belle Vernon Borough Council met Monday evening with President Alex Basits in charge and Councilmen Joseph Caputo, George Fedarko, Roger Gaggini and Robert Schmidt present.

Borough officials attending were Solicitor John E. Costello, Burgess William Venneri, Chief of Police Vincent Isenberg and Ed Johnson, acting street commissioner.

The session began at 7:30 p. m. instead of the usual 8 o'clock hour since bids for the bond issue were scheduled to be opened. There was only one bid submitted, that from Cunningham and Schmertz Co. Inc. There was no action taken on the matter.

A special meeting will be planned later this month to work further on the bond issue in the amount of $27,000. Voters in the borough voted in favor of the bond issue at the last election in order that extensive street work can be done.

Mrs. Mary Beatty, local state health officer, was present and introduced R. B. Darrell, who represented the state health department. He outlined the plan by which the state is taking over the local health duties and asked the borough council's consent to follow the same program locally. This was granted and council adopted a resolution in regard to the change.

Wants Trees Trimmed

Several residents were present requesting that trees near their property be trimmed and this was referred to the street committee. Several property owners also requested work on sewers in their areas.

Johnson reported that at present he had been engaged in painting parking lines, cutting weeds and spreading oil on the local streets.

Belle Vernon Fire Co. No. 2 was authorized to proceed with the purchase of 400 feet of hose. Secretary Joseph E. Ferrari was authorized to repay the short term loan of $5,000, borrowed early this year.

It was decided to put the speed trap on Main St. in operation.

Council authorized the payment of the annual membership to the Belle Vernon Library Association.

Council voted to install a sprinkling system in the downtown area for the children during the hot weather.

It was reported that Harry Harris expected to begin work on removing the street car rails on Main St. next Monday. Secretary Ferrari was instructed to order a new blade for the borough grader.

Tax Collector Steven Smith was exonerated from the 1956 taxes not collected, and he reported that the month's tax collection totaled $8,319.08 and Treasurer Patsy Ginglardi reported the balance in all funds in the amount of $18,706.08.

A letter was sent to the Duquesne Slag Co. concerning the dust coming from the plant. Announced was the annual state borough officials convention in Philadelphia from June 23 to 26th.

Three Candidates For Burgess in Belle Vernon

A three-way fight for burgess will highlight the primary election in Belle Vernon next Tuesday.

Incumbent William Venneri will get opposition from two other Democrats, John Perry, a former burgess, and Joseph Caputo, a councilman. There are no Republican candidates for burgess.

Eight Democrats are vying for two council seats. They are incumbents George Fedarko and Alex Basits, and Fred Matrozzo, Al Dominick, J. C. Webb, George Galiatto, Lawrence Teano and Andrew Skruber.

Three Republicans filed for the council seats. Harold T. Ringstad Jr., Kenneth Beazell and J. R. Hassen Jr.

Stephen Smith, incumbent, will have opposition for the tax collector nomination on the Democratic ticket from Patsy Cicco. No Republicans are candidates.

T. G. Stanley and J. E. Kuhn, incumbents, are getting opposition from Joseph Ferrari on the Democratic ticket for the two school director nominations. Harry Hackenson Jr. is running on the Republican ticket.

Kathleen Eversburg, who is employed in Washington, D. C., has returned there after visiting over the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Eversburg.

Young Adults Hold Banquet For Mothers

A Mother-Daughter banquet was held on Monday evening by the Young Adult Class of the Marion Presbyterian Church in the church social rooms. The women of the church under the direction of Mrs. Russell Cope served 50 members and guests.

Invocation was given by Mrs. Pearl Stewart and the table was arranged with Spring flowers. The centerpiece was a complete garden scene with a wishing well, rose arbor and a fish pond with live gold fish. The same theme was carried out in the place cards and programs.

After dinner the toastmaster, Mrs. Billie Davis, read an original poem. Mrs. Colleen Crowell sang a solo and her selections were "Tribute to Mother" and "Mother Dear".

A comedy sketch entitled, "The Operation" was enacted by Mrs. Billie Davis and Mrs. Jean Harden.

The special feature of the evening was then presented by John Macura, well known hypnotist from Pittsburgh. He entertained by hypnotizing volunteers from the audience.

Mrs. Virginia Serenari presented the gifts. Each guest who attended received a china favor. Benediction was by Marlyn Legg.

In charge of the affair were Elsie Adamec, Elaine Laskey and Harlene Sale, program; Marlyn Legg, Jean Harden, Colleen Crowell and Betty Peters, entertainment; Ellen Hamer, Pearl Stewart, Arlene Winters, Ida Mae Holet and Birdie Bradford, decorations; Virginia Serenari, Avalena Mavrikas and Shirley Stonfer, gifts; Millie Trenk, Sophie Cutter, reservations.

Maude McCauley Named to Head Catholic Daughters

The Catholic Daughters of America, Senior Court, met Monday evening in the St. Sebastian school rooms. Rosary led by Ruth Scholleart preceded the business session conducted by Grand Regent Virginia Abbott.

An invitation was extended from Court Lambie of the Greensburg Diocese and one from Vandergrift Court and from Masontown. Two Pittsburgh Diocese Courts, Carmellita and Consuella also extended invitations to attend receptions for new members.

A donation was voted to the veteran's fund.

A tea will be held at White Swan Hotel, Uniontown, June 9, and it will honor Miss Frances Maher, Supreme Regent. The court will be represented.

Mrs. Evelyn Ward was honored as the "Mother of the Year" and presented with a madonna planter.

Officers were elected for next year. They are Maude McCauley, Grand Regent; Barbara Sendek, Vice Regent; Ruth Scholleart, prophetess; Rose Dimasi, financial secretary; Dorothy Flora, historian; Mary Tintori, treasurer; Ernestine Giuliana, monitor; Olga Boyle, sentinel; Mary Guilano, lecturer; Jean Komlos, organist.

Elect Trustees

Trustees elected were Margaret Fabian and Helene Winn, three years and Carrie Flora, one year.

Installation of officers will be Sunday, June 9, at St. Sebastian rooms.

Mrs. Carrie Flora gave a poem, "Mother's Love". The birthday anniversaries observed by members in March, April and May were celebrated and these members were seated at a decorated table.

Prizes were won by Betty Gluch, Edith Ambrose, Thelma Rabochi and the March birthday prize was won by Josephine Sousae; April prize, Rose Dimasi and Mary Dolfi, May prize. Each member seated at this table received a miniature corsage.

During the social hour the Rev. David Fisher, assistant pastor at St. Sebastian, played a tape recording of the mass and illustrated it as the recording played.

Luncheon was served by the March, April and May committee which were headed by Mrs. Giuliano, Mrs. Mary Knauss, Mrs. Sara Jean Malega and Mrs. Jean Lucas.

Mrs. James Tiernan, of Broad Ave. and her mother, Mrs. Ella Leithold, of Henry St., are visiting in Los Angeles, Cal. with the former's son, Wayne, who lives there.

Bloodhounds Get Convicts Under Worst Conditions

MARION, N. C. (UP)—Two escaping convicts who waded through a lake, swam a river and even set a forest fire to cover their trail were unable to shake off a pack of bloodhounds which tracked them down.

Bernard Cardwell, 19, and Claude Rhodes, 22, both of North Wilkesboro, N. C., were recaptured about three hours after they fled from a road gang during a lunch period Tuesday.

A posse of prison guards, sheriff's deputies, highway patrolmen and Marion police, aided by bloodhounds and a low-flying airplane, followed the fugitives as they fled to Lake James six miles north of here, splashed through the water and then swam the Catawba River.

Great Richiardi Is An Incredible Wizard

CHICAGO (UP) — On a nightclub floor, the Great Richiardi proves that the art of illusion is far from dead.

Surrounded by a sophisticated audience and working under the most difficult conditions, the dashing young man from Spain performs some incredible wizardry.

In the Empire Room of the Palmer House, he makes a woman float in the air with spectators virtually surrounding her. In a split second he changes place with a girl assistant who has been handcuffed, tied in a sack and locked in a trunk.

"These are not new things," he said. "They are among the older illusions. But they are still great.

"On a stage they are difficult to perform. On a nightclub floor they are almost impossible."

Speaks Five Languages

Talking to Richiardi you get the impression few things are impossible for him, and this despite his inherent modesty.

A talented man in his mid-thirties, he is an accomplished musician and composed the score for his act. He also speaks five languages.

In his spare time he fights bulls. As an amateur he appeared in the same bull ring with the Great Cantinflas in Mexico City.

Richiardi and his family live in a villa near the base of the rock of Gibraltar, with access to both the Atlantic and the Mediterranean.

"We swim in whichever is calmer," he said.

His father and grandfather were noted magicians and Richiardi decided to follow in their footsteps while still a teen-ager.

Grand Scale Illusions

His illusions are on the grand scale of yesterday, performed in a modern setting at a sizzling pace.

It's a type of performance one seldom sees today, because high transportation costs and other factors have all but killed the big road show.

"Here I can do only a few of the more spectacular things," Richiardi said.

"But in Europe, where there are more theaters at lower rental, I do the big show with a ballet of 25 girls, a choral group, spectacular stage settings and so forth."

The troupe travels in a bus. Richiardi, his wife and their two children travel by car and a huge truck carries the equipment.

"We've played in every country in Europe except Russia, and we've played everywhere in South America," he said.

"Believe me, the art is not dead."

Rainfall reaches as much as 140 inches a year on the mountain slopes of the Olympic peninsula in Washington.

FIVE NATIONS WORK TOWARD UNIFICATION

FIVE NATIONS in Central America—Honduras, Costa Rica, Guatemala, El Salvador and Nicaragua—are working toward unification as a single country, according to Col. Jose Luis Cruz-Salazar, Guatemala's U. S. ambassador.

Curing of Cancer Is Improving

NEW YORK (UP)—The American Cancer Society said in its annual report published today that one third of all cancer victims are now being cured.

"Instead of one in four of those afflicted in the United States being saved from cancer," the Society said, "today one in three is being saved.

In a 76-page booklet, the Society said new success in the battle against cancer is being achieved because improved methods of diagnosis and treatment are more available and people are being persuaded to see their doctors earlier.

It announced generally encouraging statistics showing 800,000 American victims of the disease saved and 700,000 being successfully treated.

Big Improvement

The Society said there is "marked improvement in survival rates for localized (early) cancer" and "moderate improvement" for cases with regional involvement.

The Society recommended chest X-rays for all adults, pelvic examination for all adult women and annual health checkups for all adults.

The ACS said it has been able to devote $28,667,096 to combating the disease during the present fiscal year. Over 27 million dollars of the money was derived from the 1956 Cancer Crusade.

The ACS is spending the funds essentially on research, education and patient service.

One result of ACS-sponsored research is cell examination of uterine cancer. The report called this technique a major advance in discovering cancer in women. It said the method is accurate in detecting symptomless cancer of the cervix in over 95 per cent of women examined.

Ohiopyle Squire Named by Leader

HARRISBURG (UP) — Gov. George M. Leader has asked state Senate confirmation of his appointment of William G. Wallace, of Ohiopyle, as justice of the peace for that Fayette County borough, succeeding the late William A. Wallace. The appointment would expire in January, 1958.

A CHIP OFF THE OLD 'PROFILE' — John Barrymore, Jr., ready to appear as Romeo in a stage presentation of "Romeo and Juliet" in Pasadena, Calif., stands by a photo of his late father as he looked while playing the role. Young John has a difficult path to follow if he is to compete with the Shakespearean reputation of Barrymore, Sr.

Asks Confirmation Of Board Appointee

HARRISBURG (UP) — Gov. George M. Leader has asked state Senate confirmation of his appointment of Charles C. Mowery, of Lewistown, to the Mifflin County board of assistance, succeeding Harold R. Kepner, Lewistown, whose term expired. The appointment would expire Dec. 31, 1959.

McDonald Is Given Award

PITTSBURGH (UP) — David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, was given the 1957 Brotherhood award of the National Conference of Christians and Jews here Monday for distinguished service in the field of human relations.

The award was presented by Benjamin F. Fairless, national co-chairman of the conference and retired board chairman of U. S. Steel Corp.

McDonald said he accepted the award "for the hundreds of thousands of steelworkers" whose "loyal and unfailing support for the principles of democracy and social justice nad done so much to help make the United States a great and powerful nation."

The Pittsburgh Presbytery was presented the Levinson Family Foundation award for the work of its Council of Industrial and Interracial Relations.

Principal speaker at the dinner was Louis B. Seltzer, editor of the Cleveland Press. He said "the great challenge of brotherhood is upon us" and "we must learn to judge each other not on the basis of color or religion, but on the basis of individual character."

WHO'S AFRAID OF RADIATION! — Six-year-old Daryl Stoker looks postively undaunted by what might be termed a narrow escape from radiation poisoning. He found a strange ring-like disk (inset) in a vacant lot in Temple City, Calif., and carried it around for 12 hours. Then he showed it to his father, and father read the word "poison" on it. He rushed Daryl to the sheriff's office. It turned out radiation from the disk was too weak to be dangerous.

'Unhappier Light' Is Being Thrown Upon 'Happy Pill' by Report

By DELOS SMITH

NEW YORK (UP) — An "unhappier light" is being thrown upon the "happy pill," meprobamate, which is marketed as "Miltown" and "Equanil," the American Academy of General Practice has warned its members — the family doctors.

This "light" is the "growing worry" among medical scientists that people who take it indiscriminately run the risk of not being able to get along without it. The "light" cannot be "reconciled with earlier statements that the drug is non-addictive," said the Academy.

At the same time it made two disclosures. One was that a medical reference, "Baylor (University) practical therapeutics," is going to say meprobamate "is habit-forming in the sense that patients become quite dependent on the drug."

Premature Revelation

The other was a premature revelation of a forthcoming scientific report which will indicate that meprobamate is not a true "tranquilizer" like chlorpromazine or reserpine but a sedative more like phenobarbital which defintely is habit-forming.

This report, said the academy, will "sustain the thought that there is risk of drug dependence (or of abstinence syndrome) when meprobamate is prescribed for prolonged use by patients suffering from anxiety, alcoholism, and other emotional - behavior states."

It added that "Baylor practical therapeutics" will "note also that withdrawal symptoms — restlessness, insomnia, convulsions—may occur in patients who have been habituated to high doses."

The Academy's views followed publication of the results of carefully controlled experiments in laboratory animals which showed that meprobamate in high does produce severe "withdrawal symptoms" — in the animals — when they were deprived of meprobamate.

However, the Academy's warning was being prepared at that time and the two events were coincidental although both were reflective of a concern among medical scientists lest the public is being overly "tranquilized" with drugs.

The "tranquilizer" drugs now are reaching the public in enormous amounts, Of the "prescription drugs," they are number two in total volume, following the antibiotics. Chlorpromazine and reserpine are used mainly in mental hospitals. Meprobamate is the principal drug prescribed for "mild anxiety state," and many psychiatrists have long maintained that family doctors prescribed the most—and more than they should.

Hence, the academy's warning was of sharpened interest in medical circles. It recalled that last November it had issued a more general warning which said, in part: "Heroin was at one time lauded as non - habit forming. Many a morphine substitute has been released, only to take its toll in the misery of addiction. The barbiturates were once considered the wonder drugs. Now, although they are a valuable part of our medical armamentarium, they have created a vast social and addictive problem. It is to be hoped that history does not repeat itself in the use and abuse of the ataractic (tranquilizing) drugs."

Navy Announces New Cold Record

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Navy announced Monday that a new world cold record of 100 degrees below zero has been recorded at Amundsen-Scott base in the Antarctic.

What's more, it added, scientists at the International Geophysical Year research station expect the mercury to dip to 120 degrees below once the Antarctic winter starts on June 21.

The previous record—90 below — was recorded in February, 1892, at Verhoyansx in northern Siberia.

HE'LL PARACHUTE 90,000 FEET — Capt. Henry P. Nielsen of the Aero Medical laboratory, Dayton, O., is the man who is scheduled to try a 90,000-foot parachute drop this summer. He is shown adjusting a trial dummy at New Brighton, Minn., before it was sent up by balloon to make a similar drop. But it couldn't get loose.

Tests for Sheppard

CLEVELAND (UP) — Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, convicted of the bludgeon-slaying of his pregnant wife, might undergo a lie detector test. Throughout the investigation of the murder of Marilyn Sheppard, the osteopathic physician had refused such tests.

It was learned today that Sheppard might undergo the tests as a life termer in Onio Penitentiary, Columbus, under auspices of the "Court of Last Resort." This is an unofficial organization headed by mystery writer Erle Stanley Gardner. The court is a promotion activity of Argosy Magazine.

Sheppard's two brothers and their wives already have agreed to take the tests The question of the convicted man himself submitting will be answered by Ohio Gov. C. William O'Neill. Warden Ralph W. Alvis has said he would not permit it.

The Court of Last Resort entered the Sheppard case at the request of Dr. Stephen and Dr. Richard Sheppard and their wives, Betty and Dorothy. All four agreed to submit if Gardner would investigate the case.

Sheppard's conviction has been appealed through the United States Supreme Court with all decisions against the doctor.

Manager Named to Board of Directors

ERIE, Pa. (UP)—Fred Bahrenburg, plant manager of the Hammermill Paper Co. here, today was elected to the board of directors at the annual stockholders meeting.

Bahrenburg succeeds William Brust, Hammermill vice president who retired three years ago, who also is retiring from the board.

President Donald S. Leslie reviewed Hammermill's current expansion plans but made no predictions on future operations.

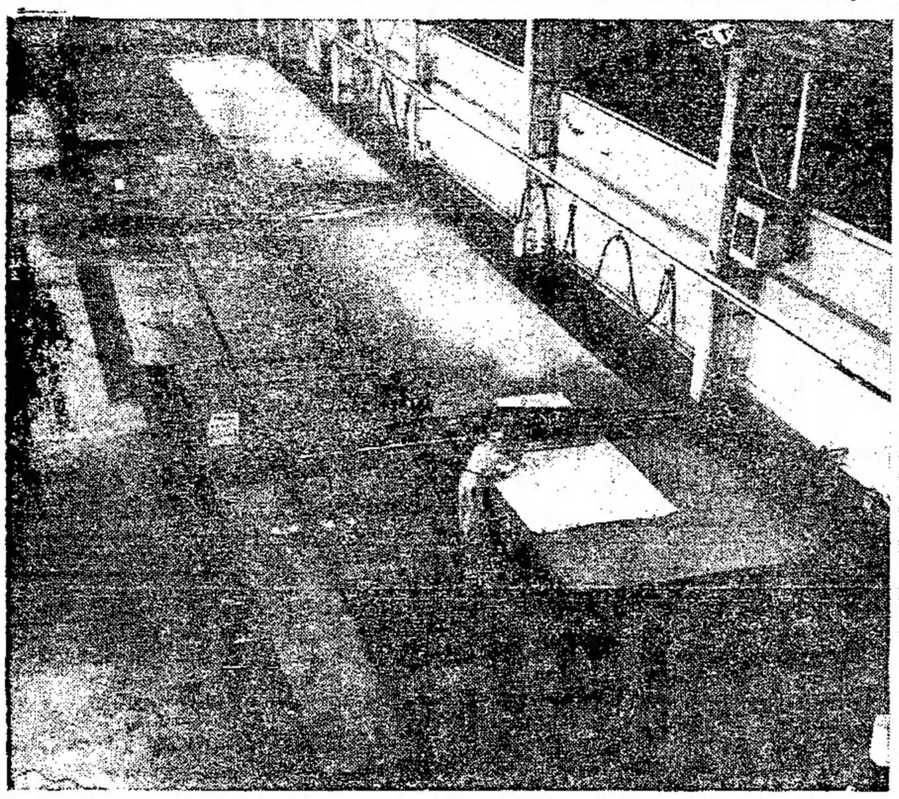
REFLECTING ROME'S GRANDEUR—The classic landmark of Rome, the Colosseum, reminds the viewer of the days when the gladiators and their opponents waited in subterranean chambers for the contests. The Romans also used to flood the Colosseum for miniature naval battles. It was built to hold 50 thousand spectators.



LONGEST AND LARGEST—The world's longest flame shape-cutting machine (124 feet) cuts heavy steel into welding parts for the world's largest overhead ladle cranes. The unit is installed in an Alliance, O., plant. Four of the large cutting torches are mounted on each of two huge cutting carriages in the foreground.

CURIOS FOR CUSTOMERS—King island Eskimos work on some ivory curios on the beach near Nome, Alaska. The curios are in demand by many tourists.

Signed In Steel

Punches are kept oiled, edges sharp.

CONDUCTOR Pappy Ayers of the Erie railroad started the custom of using an iron and steel punch back in 1852 to stamp tickets, and today some ten thousand conductors in the U. S. have them. Punch leaves a hole as distinctive as any handwritten signature, with designs ranging from the head of a goat to a boxing glove.

Designs (upper left) are conductors' special marks.

More Room at Top, Job Counselor Claims

CHICAGO (UP) — If you're job hunting, remember that there's more room at the top than the bottom.

At least that's the theory of job counselor Richard Gleason, who says most job applicants underrate themselves.

Gleason, who heads his own firm, specializes in finding jobs for executives and management people in the $8,000 to $30,000 a year bracket. But he's gone as high as $90,000

Right now, he said, there's a shortage of executive talent in this country.

"World War II and the Korean War interrupted the careers and the training of many promising young men," Gleason said. "So industry has had to rely on older men in executive posts."

Actually, he said, age seldom is a deterrent to a knowing job seeker, "but it is almost always the excuse an employer gives for not hiring."

"The reason usually is the fact that the applicant hasn't sold his prospective employer on the advantages he can bring to a job," Gleason said.

He offered these tips to jobhunters:

—Don't change jobs unless you're assured of at least a 25 per cent pay increase

—Don't switch jobs for more money unless the new job has a sound future.

—Get at least five possible jobs to pick from before you jump.

Gleason, who has helped thousands of persons land jobs, said the last thing to discuss in a job interview is salary.

Many applicants, he said, fear that if they ask for too much they'll lose out

"But it's often as bad to ask for too little," he said. "An employer values an applicant much as he values himself."

Most persons don't realize their own potentials, don't realize how much experience they have to offer and don't know how to sell themselves, Gleason said.

"Even sales managers, who know all about selling a product, don't know how to put their best foot forward when they're looking for a better job," he said.

Gleason said job hunting should proceed along these lines.

—Pick the job you want.

—Analyze the job's requirements.

—Consider how you meet those requirements.

—Prove it in good promotional letters.

"Remember," he said, "a prospective employer wants to know what you can do for him, and he wants proof based on your experience."

Bit of the Past

CHICAGO (UP)—A bit of the past turned up unexpectedly Tuesday while workmen were digging the foundation for a new plant

They came across a high-topped woman's shoe—vintage 1870.

Fire Hero Just Had to Decline

LOS ANGELES (UP)—Earl Livingston, 33, dashed in and out of a burning apartment house Tuesday to aid in the rescue of two mothers and their 11 children

When all had reached safety, Livingston said, one of the mothers asked him to go into the building once more to save her television set.

He declined.

Garment Worker Is Now Hollywood Star

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—On New York's Seventh Ave., the busy fraternities of clothing manufacturers stop in their noon sidewalk discussions to marvel over what has happened to a member of their profession.

A cloaks-and-suiter has been in Mexico — portraying a Spanish bullfighter in a movie.

Bob Evans, 27-year-old genius in the garment business, accidentally fell into the movies and is being hailed as a top discovery of the year. Handsome dark-haired Evans, a partner in the Evan-Picone Company, maker of skirts and slacks, is the only garment manufacturer who soon may be handing out autographs to film fans.

In Two Pictures

He's in two top pictures—as the late producer, Irving Thalberg, in "The Man With A Thousand Faces" and as a bullfighter in Ernest Hemingway's "The Sun Also Rises." In sideburns and a cravat he looks every inch a Spaniard

"I was first discovered by Norma Shearer when she saw me by the swimming pool at the Beverly Hills Hotel," Evans said

"She wanted me to play the part of her former husband, Thalberg, in a Universal-International movie."

Business and was leaving for New York that night, but the former actress talked him into making a test. He missed his plane. But he won the part over stiff competition

After "The Man With A Thousand Faces" he returned to New York and his business. But one night in El Morocco nightclub, producer Darryl F. Zanuck spotted him and asked him to play the important bullfighter role in "The Sun Also Rises."

Zanuck hadn't seen me in the other movie and had never heard of me," continued Evans. "I decided it was fate, if I were discovered twice."

Evans now is the only actor under personal contract to Zanuck. But this celluloid success brings a suave shrug to the young man

Miller's Testimony In Record

WASHINGTON (UP)— Playwright Arthur Miller's testimony before the House Un-American Activities Committee last June will be read into the record of his trial for contempt of Congress today. He is charged with refusing to answer two questions put to him by the committee.

Miller was indicted for contempt of Congress for refusing to name persons who attended meetings of allegedly pro-Communist writers in 1947. He said he refused to inform on associates on "grounds of conscience."

The lanky husband of actress Marilyn Monroe dozed, doodled, and crossed and uncrossed his legs during a long afternoon Tuesday taken up by government attorney William Hitz who read other government documents into the trial record.

Marilyn not Present

His curvaceous blonde wife did not appear in the courtroom.

Both defense and prosecuting attorneys predicted the trial would last two more days because of the voluminous government documentation.

Hitz touched off fireworks from Miller's attorney, Joseph L. Rauh Jr., by declaring in his opening statement that the House committee had information Miller had been a member of the Communist Party for four years, at least until 1947.

Hitz said as far as he knew Miller had never denied being a past member of the Communist Party.

Rauh replied that Miller had denied past Communist membership in an affidavit to the State Department for a passport. He called Hitz statement a 're-write of the printed word."

Rauh said the committee was so certain Miller, who testified freely to leftwing associations, never was a member of the Communist Party "that they didn't even ask him."

Senate Okays Bill Restricting Use of Boats

HARRISBURG (UP) — Gov. George M. Leader today received legislation restricting the use of motor boats on certain portions of Pymatuning Lake on the Pennsylvania-Ohio border.

The Senate bill was approved unanimously by the House Monday, 195-0. The legislation would prohibit motor boats on the lake from the causeway at Linesville southeasterly to the southeastern end of the lake at Route 285.

The bill retained a provision limiting the horsepower rating to six and the requirement of state licenses. The bill contains a new section providing a $50 fine or a 30 day jail term for convicted violators of laws governing the lake.

The bill was sponsored by Senate Majority Leader Richard B. Mahany (R-Crawford). The new laws if enacted by Gov. Leader would not go into effect until similar legislation is passed by the Ohio Legislature.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Frances Brooks; a son, James Jr., at home, a daughter, Mrs. John (Beverly) Caputo, of Donora, one grandchild; his father, Vernon Brooks, of Fellsburg; and two sisters, Mrs. Louella Campbell, of Fellsburg, and Mrs. Mary Belle Rapp, of Gallatin. Friends are being received at the Lawson Funeral Home, Donora. On Wednesday, May 15, the body will be removed to the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints, to lie in state from 12 noon until 2 p. m., time of services. The Rev. James P. Marsh will officiate. Interment will be in Monongahela Valley Memorial Park. Richard E. Lawson, funeral director.

WALTERS — Mrs. Theresa, 72, of 325 Water St., Belle Vernon, died May 13, 1957, at 9:30 p. m. Surviving are her husband, Michael Walters; five sons, Elmer Louis and John, of Belle Vernon; George, of Bridgeport, Conn.; William H., of Speers and Joseph, of Los Angeles, Calif.; two daughters, Mrs. George (Irene) Guydan, of Stradford, Conn. and Mrs. Nick (Genevieve) Andricovich, of Hartford, Conn.; two brothers, Joseph Saylor, of Lock Four and Leopold Saylor, of Long Branch; and 10 grandchildren. Friends will be received at the Ferguson Funeral Home, Broad Ave., Belle Vernon, after 7 p. m., May 14. Visiting hours are from 1 to 5 and from 7 to 10 p. m. Funeral services will be held Thursday, May 16, at 10 a. m. from the St. Sebastian R. C. Church in Belle Vernon. The Very Rev. Henry Hanse will officiate at requiem mass. Interment will be in Belle Vernon Cemetery. Shelby D. Ferguson, funeral director.

2 Card of Thanks

TUECHE — We wish to thank the many thoughtful friends and neighbors who extended us kindness in our recent bereavement, the death of Mr. Harry Tuecke, Sr. The ministrations of the Rev. Martin O'Toole, the services of the Monessen Volunteer Fire Dept.; masses, floral tributes, expressions of sympathy, spiritual comfort, cars loaned for the funeral, and the aid of the pall bearers; as well as all those who assisted at the funeral will be remembered with gratitude.

Mrs. Harry Tuecke, Sr. and Family

SALE OF BONDS
SCHOOL DISTRICT OF THE CITY OF MONESSEN, PENNSYLVANIA.
$275,000.00

Sealed bids will be received by the School District of the City of Monessen, Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, at the High School Building, Sixth and Reed Avenues, Monessen, Pennsylvania, until 8:00 o'clock P. M., E.D.S.T. and will be opened immediately thereafter on Tuesday, May 28, 1957, for the purchase of $275,000.00 par value general obligation coupon bonds of the School District. The bonds are of the denomination of One Thousand ($1,000.00) Dollars each, registrable as to principal only, dated June first, 1957, and mature in the order of their number as follows: — Fifteen bonds ($15,000.00) on June first of the years 1959 to 1976, inclusive, and five bonds, ($5,000.00) on June first, 1977, with interest payable June first and December first in each year. The principal and interest are payable without deduction for any taxes (except gift, succession or inheritance taxes) levied pursuant to any present or future law of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Each bid shall specify in a multiple of one eighth of one per cent a single rate of interest which the bonds are to bear and shall be accompanied by cash or a certified or cashier's or treasurer's check drawn to the order of the School District in the sum of $5,500.00 as security for the performance of such bid.

Bids shall be addressed to John Kossar, Secretary, Monessen High School, Sixth and Reed Avenues, Monessen, Pennsylvania, and shall be enclosed in a sealed envelope sufficiently labeled to indicate that it is a bid for these bonds.

The bonds will be sold to the highest responsible bidder subject to approval of the authorizing proceedings by the Department of Internal Affairs of Pennsylvania. No bid for less than par and accrued interest or for less than all of the bonds will be accepted.

The purchaser will receive without charge the opinion of Messrs. Burgwin, Ruffin, Perry & Pohl of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, that the bonds are valid, general obligations of the School District payable from ad valorem taxes levied on all taxable property within the School District within the limitations prescribed by law.

The right to reject any or all bids is reserved.

Prospectus prepared by Hosack, Specht, Muetzel & Wood, Park Building, Pittsburgh 22, Pa., concerning this issue, will be furnished upon request.

By order of the Board of School Directors of the School District.

Great Lakes Ports 'Fourth Seacoast'

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UP)—Ports along the Great Lakes will make up the "fourth seacoast in the United States" with opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway, according to an official of the St. Lawrence Seaway Development Corp.

In an address to the American Public Works Association, Martin W. Oettershagen of Chicago said Monday the seaway's completion would mark "one green light" for lake cities from an economic standpoint.

The statement echoed declarations by Rhee, who has repeatedly threatened to "march north" and reunite Korea.

Couple Offers All Rights to Gold Bullion

MANILA (UP) — An American couple reported to have found a 50 million dollar sunken treasure has offered to give up all rights to it, the Philippine News Service said Monday.

The same service reported Sunday that professor Vincent Palmer and his wife, Lucie, had found the treasure in gold bullion while studying marine life in the Sulu Sea in the southern Philippines.

The news service said Monday it had received a telegram from the "Washington Masias Scientific Artist Suboceanic Society Expedition" from Bongao, Sulu.

It quoted the Palmers as saying in the telegram:

"We have found the Filipinos and Moslems so pleasant and friendly to Americans we offer our rights to three objects your (the news service's) dispatch describes as worth 50 million dollars to the Philippine people."

Suspended Liquor Agent's Trial Delay Ordered

ERIE, Pa. (UP)—The trial of Basil Brady, suspended state liquor enforcement agent charged with extorting $100 from a Union City tavern owner, has been postponed until September.

The delay was ordered Monday by Judge Burton Laub after defense attorney J. S. Juliante's petition for dismissal of the charges was turned down.

Brady is accused of conspiracy, blackmail and perjury in the alleged extortion of the money from Joseph Miller.

The liquor board agent, who formerly served in Erie and was later transferred to Allentown, was implicated by Erie tavern owner Charles Wisniewski, now serving a 23½ month term for his part in the scheme.

No Nagging Backache Means a Good Night's Sleep

Nagging backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, emotional upset or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation —with that restless, uncomfortable feeling.

If you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys — tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

So if nagging backache makes you feel dragged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Doan's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 60 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Doan's Pills today!

Another Movie Star Turning to Singing

By ALINE MOSBY

HOLLYWOOD (UP) — New recording star Natalie Wood has bobby-soxers idol Anthony Perkins has latched onto Hollywood new fad — Sunday spectacles, actors who are vocalizing on records and TV.

Perkins main job he declares is making love to tna senior-size glamour queen Italy's Sophia Loren in "Desire Under the Elms." But between scenes on the Paramount set Joey is busy composing ditties for his forthcoming record album.

Robert Mitchum Another

Perkins recorded a song from a TV show that pushed him to the top of the charts. "I was very nervous and it came out badly and it sold badly, too.

"However," he continued, "I recorded another song 'Friendly Persuasion' from the movie that was nominated for an Oscar nomination. I was a little nervous and no wish and it went very badly and sold badly.

The record company suggested rock 'n' roll so I did that but I was very nervous etc. sighed Joey who his friend says is often a nervous young man.

But a couple of weeks ago I sang on the Ed Sullivan Show and it went better so now I'm doing an album of 12 numbers. At the first recording there was such a horrible mixture of obstacles that I did the song very well and was not nervous at all and I hope the next five songs go as well."

The young actor has a baritone voice that he thinks is "a combination of early Mel Torme and (trumpet player) Chet Baker," whatever that means.

Thanks Gary Cooper-ish Perkins sees nothing amiss with actors invading the singing field, even though they can't really sing. After all, he says such singers as Frank Sinatra and Dorothy Dandridge have developed into fine actors.

"I think it's good—I like to hear actors sing and I think the public is fascinated by the idea," he said. In fact I like singing better than acting. It's easier. I'd love to be in a musical."

Sylvania Plans For New Plant

ALTOONA, Pa. (UP)—Sylvania Electric Products Inc. announced today work will begin within two weeks on construction of a multi-million dollar electronic tubes plant here.

Ground was broken for the plant last October. But construction was delayed by Sylvania to speed work on other installations already underway.

The two-story 400-foot long plant will be built on a site adjacent to the Altoona Veterans Administration Hospital. Completion is scheduled for 1958.

Sun spots are magnetic storms of vast dimensions on the surface of the sun and they shoot out electrified particles into space.

Your Health—

Some Symptoms Call For Quick Check-Up

By H. N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

While cancer is primarily a disease of the middle-aged and elderly, no age group is immune to the ravages of this disease.

Cancer of the kidney, for instance, generally attacks two different age groups — middle-aged men and women, and children under 10. Still, men in their 30s and even above 70, occasionally become victims.

Most common form of cancer of the kidney among children and babies is called Wilm's tumor. This rapidly growing malignancy may quickly replace the entire kidney.

The first sign of such a tumor usually is a swelling of the kidney. For this reason, any swelling in a child's abdomen should be called to the attention of your physician immediately.

Hypernephroma is the most usual form of kidney cancer in adults and generally occurs between the ages of 50 and 60. Earliest and most common symptom is painless bleeding which shows up in the urine. The symptom ceases and then returns intermittently. Other symptoms include pain, colicky pain from blood clots in the ureter, an unexplained low grade fever or a dragging sensation or feeling of fullness in the flank.

Blood in the urine also is an early symptom of cancer of the bladder.

Now this blood does not always show up as a bright red. If the urine contains only small quantities of blood it may appear as a pink or smoky color. In this type of cancer, too, this symptom may occur intermittently.

Even a single appearance of blood in the urine means a quick visit to your doctor, although, of course, this is not always an indication of cancer.

Symptoms of cancer of the prostate usually are extremely vague in the early stages. Yet there are some slight symptoms which should be acted upon quickly.

See your doctor at once if there is any change in the evacuation of urine such as an obstruction to free urination, a burning sensation during urination, blood in the urine or more frequent or urgent urination.

SAVED $1,374 AS NEWSBOYS — That is the total amount these two newsboys have amassed since joining The Daily Independent as carrier boys. Each carried papers for about four and half years and now have retired to plan for their future education. The youths are Anthony Bitonti, left, and Gerald Barron.

Two Carrier Boys Learn About Business

Anthony Bitonti and Gerald Barron are two more young men who have learned about business early in life as carrier boys for The Daily Independent.

Anthony, 16½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Bitonti, of 442 Motheral Ave., and Gerald, also 16½, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Barron, of 516 Delaware St., both of Monessen, have submitted their resignations as newsboys after serving a total of about nine years.

During that nine years they amassed savings amounting to $1,374 through The Independent's Carrier boy Thrift Club. Anthony saved $804 and Gerald placed $570 in the bank.

Like other carriers, the two boys gained business experience while buying their newspapers from The Independent at wholesale prices and reselling them at retail to customers on their routes.

Anthony, who serviced Motheral Ave., plans to use his earnings to attend St. Vincent College to study history and physical education. Active in sports, he played junior varsity football, volleyball and tennis at Monessen High School. He also enjoys swimming, camping, baseball, novels and wood-carving.

The Bitonti youth is a member of St. Cajetan Roman Catholic Church, where he was an altar boy for nine years and now is a member of the choir.

He said being a newsboy has taught him many things. Most important, he said, was that it "gave me self assurance, taught me the value of money and how to act among different types of people."

The Barron youth delivered papers on Lenawee, Delaware, Shawnee, Hoover and Indiana avenues. He, too, intends using his Daily Independent savings to help him through college. His ambition is to attend a flight engineering school.

Football, basketball, camping and reading automotive books are his favorite interests.

He belongs to Trinity Episcopal Church, where he is in the choir and vice-president of the Young Peoples Fellowship.

"Being a newsboy," Gerald said, has helped me to make many friends and to place trust in people. Through the Daily Independent Thrift Club I have learned the value of money."

Methodists in Annual Parley At Uniontown

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (UP) — The 152nd annual Pittsburgh Conference of the Methodist Church representing 166,000 members of 465 churches in Southwestern Pennsylvania and Northern West Virginia, opened at Asbury Methodist Church here today.

At the first session of the five-day meeting, memorial services were to be conducted by the Rev. Joseph DeShane Piper, of First Methodist Church, McKeesport, and the Rev. M. S. Longenecker, of the Ellwood City Methodist Church.

Holy Communion services will be conducted by Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke of Pittsburgh, assisted by the five district superintendents: Drs. J. L. Carraway, Allegheny District; E. L. Boettcher, Blairsville District; William L. Hogg, McKeesport District; J. P. Lambertson, Pittsburgh District, and G. Warren Smucker, Washington District.

The conference meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service will be held Thursday. Pastoral assignments will be announced Sunday by Bishop Wicke.

Good Deed for Day

VENTURA, Calif. (UP) — Mrs. Edythe Lowe made an unexpected contribution to the Boy Scouts' clothing drive Monday. When the scouts came to the door and asked for clothes her little boy thought the scouts had been sent by the laundryman and turned over a bundle containing the family wash.
